Oversight Colleagues –

Now through the next few years will be some of the most important years for congressional oversight in our nation's history. With that in mind, and appreciating that the need to organize and refine oversight skills and coordination is more pronounced, the American Accountability Foundation, the Heritage Foundation, and the Conservative Partnership Institute are jointly organizing an off-site staff and outside investigator retreat focused on research.

We believe the ability to get outside Washington and have a bi-cameral session where leaders from the research community meet to exchange best practices for oversight and research will significantly enhance effectiveness this year and in the next Congress.

We hope you can join us for the two day event on Maryland's beautiful Eastern Shore on May 5th and 6. Transportation will be provided to and from the venue, as well as lodging at the retreat. A complete invitation as well as the completed necessary ethics forms for the Senate Ethics Committee are attached.

Since the event is scheduled for May 5th, paperwork needs to be submitted to the Ethics Committee no later than April 5th. If you could RSVP yes or no by April 4th if you will be attending we would greatly appreciate it. We look forward to seeing you.

United States Senate

SELECT COMMITTEE ON ETHICS

May 4, 2022

John P. Heekin
Office of Senator Rick Scott
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

Dear Mr. Heekin:

This responds to your recent correspondence requesting approval from the Select Committee on Ethics (the Committee) to accept an invitation you received to travel to the Effective Oversight Training Conference in Cambridge, MD, on May 5–6, 2022, sponsored by American Accountability Foundation, The Heritage Foundation, and Conservative Partnership Institute (collectively, the Sponsors). Provided that you adhere to the guidance set forth below, it appears that it is permissible for you to accept necessary expenses from the Sponsors in connection with this trip.

Background

Based on your communication with the Committee, the background in this matter is as follows.<sup>1</sup> You are employed as general counsel to the Office of Senator Rick Scott. The sponsors invited you to travel to the Effective Oversight Training Conference in Cambridge, MD, on May 5–6, 2022. The sponsors certified to the Committee that they will pay the necessary expenses<sup>2</sup> related to the travel and that they are neither a lobbyist, lobbying firm, agent of a foreign principal, or otherwise acting as a representative or agent of a foreign government. The sponsors have also certified that they do not retain or employ a registered lobbyist or agent of a foreign principal and that no registered lobbyist or agent of a foreign principal will accompany you at any point throughout your trip.<sup>3</sup>

Discussion

Privately-sponsored travel includes any gift of travel and travel-related expenses for travel outside the Senate duty station, including transportation, lodging, food and refreshments, and conference fees and materials, whether paid for directly, reimbursed, or provided directly, from a private individual or entity, in connection with a Member's, officer's, or employee's official Senate duties. Incorporating reforms from the Honest Leadership and Open Government

<sup>1</sup> If this letter does not correctly recite the facts, contact the Committee immediately.

<sup>2</sup> The term "necessary expenses" has a specific definition. See Select Committee on Ethics' Regulations and Guidelines for Privately-Sponsored Travel – Glossary of Terms at 8.

<sup>3</sup> The term "any point throughout your trip" has a specific definition. See id. at 2.

Act of 2007 (HLOGA), Pub. L. 110–81 (2007), Senate Rule 35.2 permits Members, officers, and employees to accept privately-sponsored travel only with the prior written approval of the Committee.

The Committee's approval process is governed by the Regulations and Guidelines for Privately-Sponsored Travel and Glossary of Terms (collectively, Travel Regulations). The Travel Regulations contain detailed requirements regarding who may sponsor travel; time limits for trips; and the type and amount of expenses that can be reimbursed.

Entities that do not retain or employ a lobbyist or foreign agent and all non-profit organizations designated as tax-exempt organizations under § 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, regardless of whether they retain or employ a lobbyist or foreign agent, may sponsor domestic trips for up to three days. The three-day limitation means three 24-hour periods, calculated from the time of arrival in the trip location to the time of departure from the trip location. For such trips, neither lobbyists nor foreign agents may accompany a Senate invitee at any point throughout the trip, other than in a de minimis way.<sup>4</sup> This means that neither lobbyists nor foreign agents may accompany Senate invitees at any point to and from the event, at the event itself, or at the location being visited.<sup>5</sup>

Under Senate Rule 35, Senate staff must receive advance authorization signed by the Member or officer under whose direct supervision the individual works in order to accept payment or reimbursement for necessary expenses related to fact-finding travel. Further, such authorization and expenses must be disclosed to the Secretary of the Senate by filing the completed Employee Pre-Travel Authorization and the Employee Post-Travel Disclosure of Travel Expenses (Form RE-1 and Form RE-2), along with a copy of the Private Sponsor Travel Certification Form, and all relevant attachments (e.g., the private sponsor's invitation and itinerary) within 30 days of the conclusion of Privately-Sponsored Travel.<sup>6</sup>

Consistent with these standards and Committee precedent, the sponsors' factual representations, it appears that it is permissible for you to accept necessary expenses from the sponsors in connection with this trip, provided that the actual travel and travel-related expenses conform to the information and materials you provided, and the travel and all required documents are disclosed to the Secretary of the Senate (Office of Public Records).

Finally, Senate Rule 34 requires a reporting individual<sup>7</sup> on his or her Financial Disclosure Report, to make an annual disclosure of the receipt of payments or reimbursements under Senate Rule 35 from a private sponsor for officially-related travel expenses where, in the aggregate, travel expenses exceed $415 from that sponsor during a calendar year. However, if a Member, officer, or employee properly reports the receipt of necessary expenses for such travel to the Secretary of the Senate within 30 days of the travel, as discussed above, the travel expenses need not be disclosed a second time on their Financial Disclosure Report. I hope you find this information helpful. If you have any additional questions, please do not hesitate to contact the Committee.

<sup>4</sup> The term "de minimis" has a specific definition. See Select Committee on Ethics' Regulations and Guidelines for Privately-Sponsored Travel – Glossary of Terms at 3.

<sup>5</sup> See Select Committee on Ethics' Regulations and Guidelines for Privately-Sponsored Travel at 5; see also Select Committee on Ethics' Regulations and Guidelines for Privately-Sponsored Travel – Glossary of Terms at 2-3.

<sup>7</sup> A reporting individual is someone whose salary equals or exceeds 120% of the basic rate of pay for GS-15 ($135,468 for CY 2022) or is a political fund designee and is required to file Financial Disclosure Reports.

Sincerely,

Shannon Hamilton Kopplin
Chief Counsel and Staff Director
