- 11:30am Arrive hotel and check in - McLeod Ganj, Dharamsala
- 12:00Noon Lunch and Trip overview and briefing with ICT's Tencho Gyatso
Tencho will provide a general briefing and overview of the afternoon schedule, offering background information on the members of the Tibetan leadership that the delegation will be meeting in the afternoon, and overviews of the various departments and offices that they head.
- 1:45pm Depart for CTA
- 2:00pm Meeting with Mr. Penpa Tsering, President (Sikyong), Central Tibetan Administration (CTA).
Established in April 1959, the CTA is the continuation of the government of Tibet in exile and the true representative of the Tibetan people. The Sikyong, or President, of the CTA is elected by the Tibetans in exile and heads the Kashag, the highest executive office of the CTA, which runs and fulfills all its executive and administrative responsibilities. The Sikyong will discuss the CTA's various projects, and how his administration is working towards finding a solution for the future of Tibet in light of the current challenges, including political, environmental, cultural, and economic challenges.
- 3:00pm Visit and tour of Tibet Museum & Library of Tibetan Works and Archives (LTWA)
The Tibet Museum aims to educate the exile Tibetan community and visitors to Dharamsala through presentations on Tibet's rich history and culture. The Tibet Museum's permanent exhibition is the "I am Tibetan and This is my story" project. Tibet in this museum has a past, a present, and a future. Through objects, archives, photographs, and personal testimonies, we highlight Tibet's historical, political, and international importance by showcasing our culture, recent history in exile, and the teachings and legacy of His Holiness the Dalai Lama. The museum also addresses the many crises facing Tibetans in Tibet today, such as human rights abuses, exploitation of the environment, and curbs on cultural preservation. The Tibet Museum highlights Tibet's cultural and political struggle, and the resilience.
- The LTWA serves as a national library, museum, and archive for the Tibetan community and is also a repository for significant collections of artifacts, manuscripts, and other records, while also serving as a center for language and cultural education. Tibetan refugees have carried hundreds of ancient Tibetan manuscripts into India, often guarding them with their lives. Many of these precious texts are preserved in this Institute, and today it is internationally recognized as a pre-eminent education center and houses numerous manuscripts and artifacts in its museum. We will meet Ven. Geshe Lhakdor, Director of the Museum, to gain an understanding of the Institute and Tibetans' efforts to restore, protect, and preserve their culture in exile from their homeland.

- 4:00pm Meeting with Deputy Speaker of Tibetan Parliament in Exile
Instituted in 1960, the Tibetan Parliament-in-Exile is the highest legislative organ of the Tibetan refugee community. The Tibetan Parliament-in-Exile is headed by a Speaker and a Deputy Speaker, who are elected by the members amongst themselves. The Speaker and Deputy Speaker will update on the work of the Tibetan Parliament and Tibetan people's efforts to transition to a secular democracy in exile. This interaction offers an opportunity to understand the Tibetan democratic process in exile.
- 5:00pm Depart to Norbu Hotel
- 6:30pm Dinner with guests from Central Tibetan Administration
Guests will include Kalon Norzin Dolma, Minister, Mr. Karma Choeying, Secretary, and Mr. Tenzin Lekshay, Spokesperson and Addt'l Secretary of the Department of Information and International Relations. The Kalon will offer welcome remarks and the delegation will have an opportunity to engage discussions on the governance structure of the CTA, the democratic process that has been established in exile, as well as the CTA's efforts and interactions with the US and other governments around the world in raising awareness about the issue of Tibet.
- 8:00pm End of day

Thursday, Apr. 13

- 8:00am Briefing breakfast with Tencho Gyatso
Overview of schedule, programs, and meetings in Dharamsala.
- 8:30 am Depart hotel
- 9:00am Visit to Tibetan Children's Village School (TCV)
The Tibetan Children's Village was established in early 1960 to give much needed care and education to the many children who had been orphaned or separated from their families while arriving as refugees in India. TCV today has several thousand children under its care and the school model has received numerous awards and praise for its work with Tibetan children. The group will visit the school, classrooms, and observe how Tibetan language and culture are taught alongside a modern education.

11:30am Lunch

12Noon Depart for CTA

1:30pm Briefing with Tibetan Center for Democracy and Human Rights (TCHRD).

The TCHRD is a non-governmental human rights organization that monitors, researches, and produces information on the human rights situation in Tibet. We will hear from some of the scholars about their research and analysis. We will also hear from Ms. Tsering Tsomo, Executive Director of TCHRD, who will give an overview of the current human rights situation in Tibet. This session will enable the delegation to see how Tibetan researchers and human rights advocates are undertaking their work in exile.

3:15pm Interaction with Tibet Policy Institute (TPI).

The TPI serves as a think tank and intellectual hub for the CTA, gathering scholars and experts on topics related to Tibet. The scholars at the TPI will present their work and the delegation will have an opportunity to hear how Tibetan scholars and researchers are working at the CTA.

4:45pm Visit and learn about the preservation of Tibetan traditional arts at the Tibetan Institute of Performing Arts (TIPA).

The Tibetan Institute of Performing Arts (TIPA) is a premier institute that is entrusted with the responsibility of preserving and promoting Tibet's rich musical heritage and arts. Founded in August 1959, it was one of the first institutes established by His Holiness the Dalai Lama. Dance and music have always been integral to the Tibetan culture and are considered to be one of the key components of the traditional "five minor sciences." We will meet members of this vibrant institute, which includes instructors, artists, administrative staff, craftsmen, and students who live on the premises of the institute. We will visit the Institute's museum and learn about its growth and contributions for exile Tibetan communities everywhere.

6:00pm Dinner

7:00pm Return to Hotel

Friday, Apr. 14

7:00am Briefing breakfast with ICT's Tencho Gyatso

Overview of schedule, programs, and meetings in Dharamsala.

7:30am Depart Hotel for Tsugla-khang

8:00am Receiving line audience with His Holiness the Dalai Lama

His Holiness the Dalai Lama is the spiritual leader of the Tibetan people. He was forced to flee into exile in 1959. He is one of the world's foremost exponents of non-violence and was awarded the Nobel Peace Prize in 1989. The Dalai Lama has developed his Middle Way initiative to resolve the Tibetan issue in consideration of the interest of both the Tibetans and the Chinese people. Facing the thread of religious and cultural extinction and believing in resolving conflicts through serious dialogue and not confrontation, the Dalai Lama has since many decades relinquished the goal of independence with the Chinese Constitution. This approach also takes into consideration the People's Republic of China's security and stability concerns. The group is scheduled to have a brief audience with His Holiness and may have opportunity to discuss the Tibetan issue and His Holiness's middle way approach.

10:00am Visit the Tsug-lag-khang, Namgyal Monastery and Kora circuit

The Tsuglagkhang (pronounced Tsug-Lag-khang) refers to the main temple that is near the residence of His Holiness the Dalai Lama and Namgyal Monastery, which is next door to it. The Tsuglagkhang is the first temple built by the Tibetans in exile and contains numerous sacred Buddhist statues that Tibetan refugees rescued from Tibet and brought with them into exile. Namgyal Monastery is historically connected to the Dalai Lamas and Tibetan historical heritage. It is the personal monastery of His Holiness the Dalai Lama, and is non-sectarian and responsible for maintaining ritual practices and teachings of all the four main lineages of Tibetan Buddhism. The monks of Namgyal perform all the rites and rituals for the successive Dalai Lamas and are especially adept at ritual dances and offering creations like sand mandalas and butter sculptures. The visit will provide an overview of Tibetan Buddhist's traditional way of learning and life in the monasteries. The Kora circuit is the path encircling the residence of His Holiness, where one can see the memorials and collections of photographs of Tibetans who have self-immolated since 2009.

11:00am Visit the newly established Dalai Lama Library and Archive

The Dalai Lama library and archive is the newly built hub for preservation and archiving all of the teachings of the Dalai Lama so that people can have access. The audio visual section of the library works to connect and broadcast the Dalai Lama's teachings around the world. The delegation will meet senior staff and learn about the library's effort and outreach in promotion and preservation of His Holiness's vision for Tibet and for peace and harmony in the world.

- 12:00Noon Lunch with Sikyong Penpa Tsering
The delegation will have a lunch meeting with Sikyong Penpa Tsering to learn and discuss in more detail some of the opportunities and challenges for Mr. Tsering's administration in the road towards building a more peaceful future for Tibet and the Tibetan people.
- 2:00pm Visit to Gyuto Monastery
The Gyuto Monastery traces its history to a disciple of the first Dalai Lama. First established in 1474 AD, it became a center for learning and practice of Tibetan Buddhist tantra. The current Gyuto Monastery was inaugurated in 1996 by His Holiness the Dalai Lama, and has around 500 monks, including lamas, tulkus, teachers, students, and monks who have come from Tibet, Mongolia, Ladakh, Sikkim, Mon, Spiti, and other places. It is a vibrant, full-fledged monastic community and gives a sense of the preservation and the practice of transmission of teachings taking place in exile in India.
- 3:00pm Visit to Norbulingka Institute
The Norbulingka Institute is dedicated to the training and preservation of traditional Tibetan arts and culture, including Tibetan painting, wood carving, and weaving. We will have a guided tour of the center with one of the Institute staff to meet and visit some of the artist workshops and see how Tibetans are developing and maintaining their traditional woodwork, painting, and stitching crafts skills.
- 4:30pm Meeting with civil society and Tibetan NGOs
We will meet with leaders from Tibetan Youth Congress (TYC), the National Democratic Party (NDP), and the Tibetan Women's Association (TWA). The TYC, established in 1970, is a non-governmental organization of Tibetans that advocates for independence of Tibet. The National Democratic Party is a membership-based political party founded by the TYC in 1994, and it operates as the only Tibetan national political party with its mission statement, manifesto, and elected leadership. The third organization, TWA, was formally established in 1984 and works to promote Tibetan women's empowerment and raise global awareness of the critical situation in Tibet. They will discuss their work and engagement within the Tibetan diaspora communities.
- 5:30pm Rest
- 7:00 pm Dinner and final trip review with ICT's Tencho Gyatso
Discussion, feedback, and conversation over the meetings and programs over the last few days in Dharamsala. ICT has been organizing this trip for many years, but we would like to find out what was useful and how to improve the program to offer the best exposure and productive learning trip for our future staff delegations. This trip only touches on a few aspects of the Tibetan community and experience, but there is much more to understand and learn.

8:30pm End day – return to hotel

Saturday, Apr. 15

8:30am Breakfast

9:00am Visit hermitages and other locations around Dharamsala including Swarg Ashram, first residence of His Holiness in Dharamsala
Tibetan buddhist culture is intrinsic to the way of life of Tibetans. On the final day of the trip, Tencho will lead the delegation to visit and learn about the history of Dharamsala and learn about the challenges and history of the Tibetans first arrival and resettlement here. They will visit a few places of interest, including some small hidden hermitages, the first residence of the Dalai Lama and have a broad overview of Dharamsala from 1960 to present day.

2:00pm Depart for Reception Center/Transit school

2:30pm Brief visit the Reception Center and Transit School

This is where all recent arrivals from Tibet are received and provided immediate assistance for basic needs. Young adult Tibetans coming from Tibet receive education at the Transit school while they adjust to life as a refugee in Tibet. We will meet with students and staff at the Reception Center and Transit School to hear of their work and experiences.

3:15pm Visit to Gyuto Monastery

The Gyuto Monastery traces its history to a disciple of the first Dalai Lama.

First established in 1474 AD, it became a center for learning and pratice of Tibetan buddhist tantra. The current Gyuto monastery was inaugurated in 1996 by His Holiness the Dalai Lama, and has around 500 monks including lamas, tulkus, teachers, students and monks who have come from Tibet, Mongolia, Ladakh, Sikkim, Mon, Spiti and other places.

7:00pm Dinner with Special Guests

Mr. Chhime Rigzin Chhoekyappa, Mr. Tsegyam Ngaba, Mr. Tenzin Taklha, & Mr. Tseten Chhoekyappa are Secretaries of His Holiness the Dalai Lama. We will hear about His Holiness vision and efforts particularly towards promotion of peace and justice, and in particular his efforts for finding a solution to the Tibet-China crisis for more than 70 years. The Dalai Lama have traditionally been both political and spiritual leaders of Tibet. But the current 14th Dalai Lama was forced into exile in 1959 after Chinese occupation of his homeland. In exile, the Dalai Lama worked to gradually establish a democratic governance system to which he handed his full political authority since 2011. Inside Tibet, any signs of loyalty to the Dalai Lama are seen as dissent and can be met with arrest and imprisonment. The delegation will be able to engage and hear directly from his secretaries about the work and efforts of the Dalai Lama to not only safeguard Tibetan identity and culture in exile, but also make contributions towards the benefit of the world community.

8:30pm End day – return to hotel.

2:00pm Visit to Ganden Choeling Nunnery

Ganden Choeling is the oldest nunnery in the Dharamsala area and is located in McLeod Ganj, Upper Dharamsala. The nunnery has absorbed a steady stream of refugee nuns since 1975, and now 175 nuns live and study there. The nunnery had a well-established education system and an office run by the nun's committee. The nunnery is also home to a number of elderly nuns, many of whom became nuns later in life and are taken care of in the nunnery by the younger nuns. We will see how the nuns have rebuild in exile and glimpse into their simple daily life of study and practice.

3:30 pm Visit some small business and local Tibetan NGOs

The little town of McLeod Ganj is the center of the Tibetan community's life, with many small businesses that include Tibetan shops, restaurants, and various small non-profit offices. The group will have a brief tour which will provide a glimpse of day-to-day life and visit a few businesses to understand the local economy and see some of the handicrafts produced by Tibetan refugees. For example, the Tibetan Children Village Handicraft shop which has products made by students from their vocational training center and the proceeds directly benefit the TCV school. We will see some of the grassroots social and charitable organizations located around town that cater to various needs of the refugee community such as the Lha Charitable Trust, a grassroots volunteer organization that provides resources for the local community like language classes, clean water, and soup kitchen programs.

4:30pm Visit and learn about the preservation of Tibetan traditional arts

INTERNATIONAL
FOR TIBET

March 6, 2023

Dear Adam Kozloski,

It's my pleasure to let you know that we are organizing a Senate staffer delegation to travel to Dharamsala, which is the seat of the Central Tibetan Administration and where the Dalai Lama has been residing since he was forced into exile 60 years ago. The trip is scheduled for April 10 to April 16, 2023.

We have organized previous staffer delegations in 2018, 2019 and 2022, and we would be honored if you would consider joining us in 2023. We are hoping to put together a small delegation of 2-4 staffers interested in foreign policy to deepen their knowledge of Tibetan culture and of their struggle to maintain it, which the US Congress has been supporting for three decades. I can assure you it will be a wonderful trip and experience.

Looking forward to hearing from you and please do not hesitate to get in touch if you have any questions.

Best regards,

Tencho Gyatso
Interim Vice President/Director of Outreach

PRIVATE SPONSOR TRAVEL CERTIFICATION FORM

This form must be completed by any private entity offering to provide travel or reimbursement for travel to Senate Members, officers, or employees (Senate Rule 35, clause 2). Each sponsor of a fact-finding trip must sign the completed form. The trip sponsor(s) must provide a copy of the completed form to each invited Senate traveler, who will then forward it to the Ethics Committee with any other required materials. The trip sponsor(s) should NOT submit the form directly to the Ethics Committee. Please consult the accompanying instructions for more detailed definitions and other key information.

The Senate Member, officer, or employee MUST also provide a copy of this form, along with the appropriate travel authorization and reimbursement form, to the Office of Public Records (OPR), Room 232 of the Hart Building, within thirty (30) days after the travel is completed.
