ATTACHMENT 1 – CHANGES FROM APPROVED PRE-TRAVEL

Note: Material changes to a trip that occur after the Committee has issued an approval letter may invalidate the Committee's approval. Please contact the Committee with any questions regarding changes to an approved trip.

Were there any changes to the pre-approved travel expenses? (Transportation, Meals, Lodging, Other)?

☒ Yes ☐ No

Expense Change	Revised Amount	Explanation
Transportation	$4,349.36	Increase in transportation cost to account for travel agent and ticketing fees for booking the both ground and air travel on this multi-leg journey to 5 different cities, as well as cost for a backup bus for ground transit in Ukraine where roads are unreliable.
Misc. Expenses	$789.42	Increase in security costs due to overtime costs incurred because of travel delays
Lodging	$1,314.93	Actual cost per person of all 4 hotels (initial submission was based on quoted estimates)
Meals	$528.07	Actual costs of meals as opposed initial submission which was based on good faith estimates

Were there any changes to the pre-approved itinerary?

☒ Yes ☐ No

Explanation: On 8/21, the 9:00am meeting with the U.S. Embassy in Warsaw was moved to 4:00pm that same day, resulting in the meeting with the Polish Ministry of Foreign Affairs from 4-5:00pm being cancelled. The meeting with the Polish Ministry of Development Funds and Regional Policy originally scheduled for 2:30pm on 8/21 was moved to 5:30pm that same day. The 6:15-6:50pm visit to the Free Belarus Museum was cancelled to accommodate this shift. On 8/22, the meeting with the Mayor of Lviv originally scheduled for 3:30pm was postponed to 4:15pm because the drive from Rzeszow to Lviv took slightly longer. On 8/23, the briefing at the Superhumans Center was switched out for a similar briefing at the Unbroken Center where staff heard about the hospital's medical assistance for victims of the war. The Meeting with Lviv IT Cluster originally scheduled for 10:30am occurred at 10am. The Working Lunch with Bank of Lviv and DFC Loan Guarantees was also moved up from the originally scheduled time of 12pm to 11:30am. All of this was to allow for additional drive time from Lviv to Kyiv. The drive from Lviv to Kyiv took 8 hours (1-9pm) instead of the originally planned 5 hours (1:30-6:30pm). The Dinner with Ukraine Future Fellows originally scheduled for 7:30pm was moved to 9:00pm. Following this, at 10:30pm, a meeting was added with Ukraine Supreme Court Justices to hear about how Ukraine's judges are contributing to Ukraine's defense in the war. On 8/24, the tour of Irpin & Bucha from 9:15am-12:30pm also included a visit to Babyn Yar to put Irpin and Bucha into historical context through a discussion of past war crimes committed in the country. The working Lunch with Center for Civil Liberties originally scheduled from 1:00-2:30PM lasted only until 2pm, to allow for an additional meeting with the Ukrainian Ministry of Energy from 2:15-3:30pm to discuss how Ukraine's energy sector has been affected by the war and how the Ministry is subsequently preparing for the upcoming winter. As a result the Meeting with RISE Coalition Members originally scheduled for 3pm was moved back to 5:30pm. The field visit with UNHCR was moved up from 5pm to 4pm to accommodate this. Similarly, the Dinner Meeting with American Chamber of Commerce was pushed back half an hour to 7:30pm. On 8/25, a meeting was added at 7:45am with the U.S. Embassy in Ukraine, where Acting Deputy Chief of Mission Kevin Covert, shared updates on how U.S. Embassy staff are continuing to support Ukraine through the war. The meeting with Ministry for Digital Transformation originally scheduled for 11am was swapped out for a meeting with the Ministry of Defense for staff to hear more about the military needs for Ukraine's defense. The drive to Chişinău, Moldova was originally scheduled to last 5.5 hours (5:30-11pm) but wound up lasting 12.5 hours (3:30pm-4:00am the next day).

Were there any additional changes to the pre-approved trip?

☐ Yes ☒ No

Explanation: There were no additional changes to the pre-approved trip.

History of Congressional Travel

Since 2013, CSIS has organized a total of 10 trips with Congressional staff and members (including trips in 2013, 2014, 2015, 2016, and 2018). Most recently, in April 2022, CSIS led a staff delegation of 9 House and Senate staff to Singapore, as a part of its Congressional Foresight Initiative.

Educational Activities

The Center for Strategic and International Studies (CSIS) is a bipartisan, nonprofit policy research organization dedicated to advancing practical ideas to address the world's greatest challenges. CSIS's purpose is to define the future of national security. We are guided by a distinct set of values—non-partisanship, independent thought, innovative thinking, cross-disciplinary scholarship, integrity and professionalism, and talent development. CSIS scholars bring their policy expertise, judgment, and robust networks to their research, analysis, and recommendations. We organize conferences, publish, lecture, and make media appearances that aim to increase the knowledge, awareness, and salience of policy issues with relevant stakeholders and the interested public.

Purpose and Details

Provide a brief description of the trip.

This trip will educate Congressional staff on how U.S. military and economic assistance to Ukraine is being utilized, the contributions of partner countries, the scope and scale of reconstruction needs and why it is crucial for regional and global security that Ukraine win the fight against Russia. The delegation trip would span seven days and take U.S. congressional staff to Poland, Moldova, and Ukraine. During the trip, CSIS and Congressional staffers will meet with Polish, Moldovan, and Ukrainian government agencies, civil society members, and military leaders.

Explain how the purpose of the trip relates to your organization's mission.

As the U.S. government addresses the need for additional aid to Ukraine, this delegation trip will seek to highlight the critical role U.S. government assistance have played to continue Ukrainian resistance, ensure that the country is able to meet its government obligations, and provide much needed relief to the Ukrainian people. CSIS has been producing written reports and commentaries, as well as hosting public events and private Congressional staff briefings both prior to and after Russia's invasion of Ukraine in February 2022. The CSIS Ukraine Economic Reconstruction Commission was launched in September 2022 to produce a policy framework that will help attract private sector investments to support Ukraine's future economic reconstruction. This bipartisan and international commission has convened a series of working groups including agriculture, energy, and transportation and logistics, as well as addressing the impact of corruption on private sector investment.

CENTER FOR STRATEGIC & INTERNATIONAL STUDIES

June 29, 2023

James Hart
The Office of Senator Eric Schmitt
United States Senate
387 Russell Senate Office Building
Washington, DC 20510

Dear James,

The Center for Strategic and International Studies would like to formally invite you to join a staff delegation trip to Poland, Ukraine, and Moldova from August 19 - August 27, 2023. Over the past year, the United States has provided unprecedented levels of aid to Ukraine since Russia's invasion in February 2022. These funds are critical to continued Ukrainian resistance, have ensured that the country is able to meet its government obligations, and has provided much needed relief to the Ukrainian people. As the conflict continues, CSIS is leading a learning trip to better understand the ways in which U.S. Government assistance has been deployed to Ukraine.

Over the course of seven days, we will meet with officials within key ministries of the government, the vibrant civil society community, premier research and academic institutions, and development finance colleagues. We will depart Washington, D.C. on Saturday, August 19 (arriving on Sunday, August 20) and depart on Sunday, August 27 (returning on Sunday, August 27). We are consulting with the House and Senate Ethics Committees in planning this trip to ensure that our plans meet the necessary requirements. This trip will be paid for and organized by CSIS, which is a nonprofit, 501(c)(3) organization and as such does not employ lobbyists.

This is a bipartisan delegation of Congressional staff from both the Senate and House. The objective of this trip is to gain a better understanding of how U.S. military, humanitarian, and economic assistance have been utilized in Ukraine since Russia's invasion in 2022.

We will contact you soon regarding next steps and provide additional information as we get closer to the departure date.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth Hoffman
Director, Congressional & Government Affairs
