Dear Michael,

On behalf of the Clean Fuels Alliance Foundation (the Foundation) and sponsoring organizations, we'd like to invite you to join us in New Orleans for the 2023 Sustainable Fuels: Building the Ag Economy Tour.

This is a valuable opportunity to see expanding production and use of renewable, sustainable liquid fuels that reduce carbon today in heavy-duty vehicles and industry. Space is limited, so please reserve your spot early. Reservations must be received by Tuesday, February 28, 2023.

The tour will take place in New Orleans starting late in the day on Wednesday, April 12 and include a flight and overnight stay (Wednesday, April 12). You will return to D.C. late afternoon on Thursday, April 13. This privately sponsored tour will provide you a first-hand look at the economic impact of biodiesel and renewable diesel and the integration with agriculture in the region.

Made from an increasingly diverse mix of resources such as recycled cooking oil, soybean oil, and animal fats, clean fuels are a proven, integral part of America's agriculture economy.

With stops at Diamond Green Diesel to see renewable diesel production, Bunge North American to see soybean crushing, an IMTT terminal to see fats and oil storage and distribution, and ARTCO to see grain handling and logistics on the Mississippi river, participants will see how renewable diesel is produced, distributed, and used and learn about the supply chain of agricultural raw materials for production.

Reserve your place on the tour today with an email or phone call to Paul Winters, pwinters@cleanfuels.org, (202) 737-8803. Reserve your spot now.

Attendees will arrive in New Orleans late in the day on April 12, include an overnight stay and finish Thursday afternoon, April 13. Flights will return you to the District of Columbia late on Thursday. Foundation staff will contact you after registration to organize travel, lodging and ethics paperwork.

Reserve your seat now!

Please contact us if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Dear Michael,

On behalf of the Clean Fuels Alliance Foundation (the Foundation) and sponsoring organizations, we'd like to invite you to join us in New Orleans for the 2023 Sustainable Fuels: Building the Ag Economy Tour.

This is a valuable opportunity to see expanding production and use of renewable, sustainable liquid fuels that reduce carbon today in heavy-duty vehicles and industry. Space is limited, so please reserve your spot early. Reservations must be received by Tuesday, February 28, 2023.

The tour will take place in New Orleans starting late in the day on Wednesday, April 12 and include a flight and overnight stay (Wednesday, April 12). You will return to D.C. late afternoon on Thursday, April 13. This privately sponsored tour will provide you a first-hand look at the economic impact of biodiesel and renewable diesel and the integration with agriculture in the region.

Made from an increasingly diverse mix of resources such as recycled cooking oil, soybean oil, and animal fats, clean fuels are a proven, integral part of America's agriculture economy.

With stops at Diamond Green Diesel to see renewable diesel production, Bunge North American to see soybean crushing, an IMTT terminal to see fats and oil storage and distribution, and ARTCO to see grain handling and logistics on the Mississippi river, participants will see how renewable diesel is produced, distributed, and used and learn about the supply chain of agricultural raw materials for production.

Reserve your place on the tour today with an email or phone call to Paul Winters, pwinters@cleanfuels.org, (202) 737-8803. Reserve your spot now.

Attendees will arrive in New Orleans late in the day on April 12, include an overnight stay and finish Thursday afternoon, April 13. Flights will return you to the District of Columbia late on Thursday. Foundation staff will contact you after registration to organize travel, lodging and ethics paperwork.

Reserve your seat now!

Please contact us if you have any questions.
