Purpose and Details

Provide a brief description of the trip.

This trip would be to Epic's annual Users Group Meeting, which is one of the preeminent health IT conferences in the Country. The meeting consists of breakout meetings where health systems using Epic present new and innovative use of the software. The primary presenters at these breakout sessions are health system users from across the Country. We also have a central session where we discuss new software to come. A major focus of this conference will be AI in healthcare.

Explain how the purpose of the trip relates to your organization's mission.

This event is a unique gathering of experts in health IT from across the country in one place. Having congressional staff attend the conference allows them to hear directly from the users of health IT software how government policies are being implemented in the real world.

Is your organization the only sponsor for this trip?
