History of Congressional Travel

Describe your organization's history of sponsoring congressional travel.

Through information and advocacy work, The Pew Charitable Trusts seeks to advance development of sound public policy in the U.S. and to strengthen institutions that form the foundation of our democracy. A major component of this ongoing strategy has been to help create an environment in which policymakers can productively deliberate important issues of the day. The purpose of this ninth annual Senate Chiefs of Staff Conference hosted by Pew is to provide a collaborative environment for the Chiefs of Staff to learn from experts and discuss strategies for effective leadership, management, mission development and organization.

Educational Activities

Describe the educational activities performed by your organization other than sponsoring congressional travel.

The Pew Charitable Trusts is driven by the power of knowledge to solve today's most challenging problems. Pew applies a rigorous, analytical approach to improve public policy, inform the public and invigorate civic life. We partner with a diverse range of donors, public and private organizations, and concerned citizens who share our commitment to fact-based solutions and goal-driven investments to improve society. Pew issues dozens of research reports each year to educate the public and policy makers, and sponsors convening of researchers and experts to examine various issues of public policy and civic life.

The Pew Charitable Trusts
invites you and your significant other
to the ninth biennial

Senate Chiefs of Staff Management and Leadership Conference

Gettysburg, PA
October 27-29, 2023

REGISTER WITH .GOV EMAIL

The Pew Charitable Trusts will host a conference for the Senate Chiefs of Staff October 27-29, 2023, in Gettysburg, PA. It promises to be an engaging and informative weekend where you will learn from noted speakers about management and leadership. A copy of the agenda is available here.

We will depart from the Senate side in a motor coach Friday, October 27, at noon and return Sunday, October 29, at 2 p.m.

The chiefs' expenses (minus alcohol) are covered by The Pew

Charitable Trusts. If you wish to invite your spouse, you may reimburse Pew for those expenses (estimated to be $394.50) after the conference.

Your pre-travel paperwork should be received by the Select Committee on Ethics, at 220 Hart, by close of business on Tuesday, September 26, 2023, to ensure processing by the legal deadline. The Committee is very strict about its deadlines and will bar attendance by staff who submit late. For that reason, we recommend you complete and submit your forms immediately, even if you're not sure you'll attend, as there is no penalty if you're approved but later decide you can't attend.

Click here to download the paperwork.

If you are unable to attend, please click here to let us know.

We look forward to seeing you in historic Gettysburg this fall!

The Pew Charitable Trusts makes every effort to comply with federal, state, and local government ethics rules, including when hosting events. Please make sure that your participation is consistent with applicable ethics rules.

Dear Mr. Quinn,

The Pew Charitable Trusts
invites you and your significant other
to the ninth biennial

Senate Chiefs of Staff Management and Leadership Conference

Gettysburg, PA
October 27-29, 2023

REGISTER WITH .GOV EMAIL

The Pew Charitable Trusts will host a conference for the Senate Chiefs of Staff October 27-29, 2023, in Gettysburg, PA. It promises to be an engaging and informative weekend where you will learn from noted speakers about management and leadership. A copy of the agenda can be viewed on the event website once you have registered.

We will depart from the Senate side in a motor coach Friday, October 27, at noon and return Sunday, October 29, at 2 p.m.

The chiefs' expenses (minus alcohol) are covered by The Pew Charitable Trusts. If you wish to invite your spouse, you may reimburse Pew for those expenses (estimated to be $394.50) after the conference.

Your pre-travel paperwork should be received by the Select Committee on Ethics, at 220 Hart, by close of business on Tuesday, September 26, 2023, to ensure processing by the legal deadline. The Committee is very strict about its deadlines and will bar attendance by staff who submit late. For that reason, we recommend you complete and submit your forms immediately, even if you're not sure you'll attend, as there is no penalty if you're approved but later decide you can't attend.

Click here to download the paperwork.

If you are unable to attend, please click here to let us know.

We look forward to seeing you in historic Gettysburg this fall!

The Pew Charitable Trusts makes every effort to comply with federal, state, and local government ethics rules, including when hosting events. Please make sure that your participation is consistent with applicable ethics rules.

SELECT COMMITTEE ON ETHICS

October 24, 2023

James Quinn
Office of Senator Bill Cassidy
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

Dear Mr. Quinn:

This responds to your recent correspondence requesting approval from the Select Committee on Ethics (the Committee) to accept an invitation you received to travel to the Biannual Bipartisan Senate Chiefs of Staff Leadership Conference in Gettysburg, PA, on October 27–29, 2023, sponsored by Pew Charitable Trusts (Pew). Provided that you adhere to the guidance set forth below, it appears that it is permissible for you to accept necessary expenses from Pew in connection with this trip.

Background

Based on your communication with the Committee, the background in this matter is as follows.[1] You are employed as the Chief of Staff for the Office of Senator Bill Cassidy. Pew invited you to travel to the Biannual Bipartisan Senate Chiefs of Staff Leadership Conference in Gettysburg, PA, on October 27–29, 2023. Pew certified to the Committee that it will pay the necessary expenses[2] related to the travel and that it is neither a lobbyist, lobbying firm, agent of a foreign principal, or otherwise acting as a representative or agent of a foreign government. Although Pew retains or employs a federally registered lobbyist or foreign agent, Pew has certified that it is an organization designated under § 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code[3] and that no registered lobbyist or agent of a foreign principal will accompany you at any point throughout your trip.[4]

Discussion

Privately sponsored travel includes any gift of travel and travel-related expenses for travel outside the Senate duty station, including transportation, lodging, food and refreshments, and conference fees and materials, whether paid for directly, reimbursed, or provided directly, from a private individual or entity, in connection with a Member's, officer's, or employee's official Senate duties. Incorporating reforms from the Honest Leadership and Open Government Act of 2007 (HLOGA), Pub. L. 110–81 (2007), Senate Rule 35.2 permits Members, officers, and employees to accept privately sponsored travel only with the prior written approval of the Committee.

The Committee's approval process is governed by the Regulations and Guidelines for Privately Sponsored Travel and Glossary of Terms (collectively, Travel Regulations). The Travel Regulations contain detailed requirements regarding who may sponsor travel; time limits for trips; and the type and amount of expenses that can be reimbursed.

Entities that do not retain or employ a lobbyist or foreign agent and all non-profit organizations designated as tax-exempt organizations under § 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, regardless of whether they retain or employ a lobbyist or foreign agent, may sponsor domestic trips for up to three days. The three-day limitation means three 24-hour periods, calculated from the time of arrival in the trip location to the time of departure from the trip location. For such trips, neither lobbyists nor foreign agents may accompany a Senate invitee at any point throughout the trip, other than in a de minimis way.[5] This means that neither lobbyists nor foreign agents may accompany Senate invitees at any point to and from the event, at the event itself, or at the location being visited.[6]

Under Senate Rule 35, Senate staff must receive advance authorization signed by the Member or officer under whose direct supervision the individual works in order to accept payment or reimbursement for necessary expenses related to fact-finding travel. Further, such authorization and expenses must be disclosed to the Secretary of the Senate by filing the completed Employee Pre-Travel Authorization and the Employee Post-Travel Disclosure of Travel Expenses (Form RE-1 and Form RE-2), along with a copy of the Private Sponsor Travel Certification Form, and all relevant attachments (e.g., the private sponsor's invitation and itinerary) within 30 days of the conclusion of Privately Sponsored Travel.

Consistent with these standards and Committee precedent, Pew's factual representations, it appears that it is permissible for you to accept necessary expenses from Pew in connection with this trip, provided that the actual travel and travel-related expenses conform to the information and materials you provided, and the travel and all required documents are disclosed to the Secretary of the Senate (Office of Public Records).

Finally, Senate Rule 34 requires a reporting individual[7] on their financial disclosure report, to make an annual disclosure of the receipt of payments or reimbursements under Senate Rule 35 from a private sponsor for officially-related travel expenses where, in the aggregate, travel expenses exceed $480 from that sponsor during a calendar year. However, if a Member, officer, or employee properly reports the receipt of necessary expenses for such travel to the Secretary of the Senate within 30 days of the travel, as discussed above, the travel expenses need not be disclosed a second time on their financial disclosure report.

I hope you find this information helpful. If you have any additional questions, please do not hesitate to contact the Committee.

Sincerely,

Shannon Hamilton Kopplin
Chief Counsel and Staff Director
