ATTACHMENT 1 – CHANGES FROM APPROVED PRE-TRAVEL

Note: Material changes to a trip that occur after the Committee has issued an approval letter may invalidate the Committee's approval. Please contact the Committee with any questions regarding changes to an approved trip.

Were there any changes to the pre-approved travel expenses? (Transportation, Meals, Lodging, Other)?

● Yes ○ No

Expense Change	Revised Amount	Explanation
Lodging	$681.38	Senator Cornyn (and Mrs. Cornyn) only spent one night at Sea Island due to flight changes for votes. The revised total for lodging was $681.38 (one night at the standard rate).
Meals	$962.00	The total for Senator Cornyn's and Mrs. Sandy Cornyn's meals (Saturday reception-Sunday breakfast) is $962.00
Misc. Expenses	$351.73	The total service charges, fees, and taxes charged by the hotel for Senator Cornyn's and Mrs. Sandy Cornyn's meals comes to $351.73.

Were there any changes to the pre-approved itinerary?

● Yes ○ No

Explanation: Due to changes in the Senate's vote calendar, Senators had to amend their existing flight reservations that impacted their travel times/arrivals. None of their specific programming changed times, but their specific involvement in day-to-day programming was affected.

Were there any additional changes to the pre-approved trip?

○ Yes ● No

Explanation: There were no additional changes to the pre-approved trip.

AEI WORLD FORUM | SEA ISLAND, GA

August 22, 2023

The Honorable John Cornyn
United States Senate
517 Hart Senate Office
Washington, DC 20510

Dear Senator Cornyn:

I am writing to invite you to the American Enterprise Institute's annual World Forum, which will be held March 7–10, 2024, in Sea Island, Georgia.

AEI's World Forum has a remarkable 40-year history that has made it one of the most important gatherings of influential leaders grappling with the most critical policy challenges of the day. Every year, we convene a group of world leaders from government, business, media, and academia to discuss the major challenges facing the free world.

What sets AEI's Forum apart from other events of its kind, however, is its reputation as one of the most substantive and thought-provoking off-the-record events that features serious, civil debate on both today's urgent issues and those that are further afield. Your participation as a speaker would add great value to these conversations.

I very much hope you will be able to join us next year. I have enclosed the agenda and participant list from this year's World Forum, and I will share with you the 2024 program agenda as it takes shape.

With warm regards,

Robert Doar
President
American Enterprise Institute

8:00–10:15 p.m.	Post-Dinner Reception	The Cloister
8:30–9:00 p.m.	Evening Conversation The States of the Union: Two Governors' Views Brian Kemp Ned Lamont Chris Stirewalt (Moderator)	The Cloister Ballroom	AEI scholar Chris Stirewalt interviews Georgia Governor Brian Kemp and Connecticut Governor Ned Lamont to get governors' perspective on the state of the country in 2024. The conversation will cover the challenges and opportunities the states and state governments are facing today.
9:00 p.m.	Livestream State of the Union Address	The Cloister
9:15–10:15 p.m.	Starlight Chats The Changing National Collegiate Athletic Association Charles Baker James E. Delany William Weatherford (Moderator)	The Cloister	On and off the field, college sports commanded Americans' attention this past year. The financial compensation of student-athletes through name, image, and likeness deals; the ever-increasing transfer rates of athletes; and conference realignment have transformed the traditional landscape of college athletics. How should universities, student-athletes, and fans understand and react to these developments? Are they a unique opportunity for growth or a threat to the integrity of competition? And what's coming next? National Collegiate Athletic Association President Charles Baker and former Big 10 Commissioner James E. Delany will provide an insider perspective on these issues in a conversation moderated by AEI trustee William Weatherford.
	Life-and-Death Decisions in Seconds: Mission Control During Apollo Gene Kranz Charles Murray (Moderator)		When Apollo 11 first put human beings on the moon, Gene Kranz was the flight director for the lunar landing. When the Apollo 13 service module exploded in space, Mr. Kranz was the flight director who successfully brought the astronauts home. For this, he was awarded the Presidential Medal of Freedom, the nation's highest civilian honor, and he was portrayed by Ed Harris in the 1995 film Apollo 13. Mr. Kranz was NASA's second chief flight director and directed missions for the Mercury, Gemini, and Apollo programs. He is the author of a New York Times bestselling memoir Failure Is Not an Option: Mission Control from Mercury to Apollo 13 and Beyond. Join Charles Murray, coauthor of Apollo: The Race to the Moon, for a conversation with this American hero.

Is India Really Rising?

Bhaskar Chakravorti
Derek Scissors
Ashley J. Tellis
Sadanand Dhume (Moderator)

India is the new hot partner country in economics and, potentially, security. The usual basis for this is the country's huge, young population and potential for a full generation of fast economic growth. But those factors were present five years ago, when India received much less attention. What's changed to make it more popular? One possibility is the country's policy choices. Another, though, is that India is basically the same and the world is just more desperate for an economic success not named China. This panel will debate bullish and bearish views of India and then consider some of the political and military implications of India hype rising versus India really rising.

Rescuing San Francisco from the Far Left

Jay Cheng
Robert Doar (Moderator)

In 2022, San Francisco voters did the seemingly unthinkable: They recalled their own progressive district attorney, creating a political moment that reshaped the conversation around public safety in the Democratic Party. The City by the Bay did it twice that year, when it also recalled three progressive school board members. How did America's most liberal city come to dramatically reject far-left politics? Join AEI President Robert Doar and Jay Cheng, lead organizer of District Attorney Chesa Boudin's recall and executive director of Neighbors for a Better San Francisco, for a discussion of the political battles that are defining San Francisco and how changing trends and demographics could reshape urban politics in the decade to come.

8:00–9:30 a.m. Special Exhibit — The Cloister

The Situation Room: The Wars in Ukraine and the Middle East

Frederick W. Kagan
Kimberly Kagan

Frederick W. Kagan and the Critical Threats Project (CTP) at AEI work closely with their research partner, the Institute for the Study of War (ISW), led by Kimberly Kagan. CTP and ISW are analyzing the ongoing Russian invasion of Ukraine, the Israel-Hamas war, and Iran's activities in the Middle East. The daily update maps are actively used by most major media outlets, including the BBC, CNN, The Guardian, the Financial Times, the New York Times, and Reuters. This session will showcase the most recent CTP-ISW assessments of the conflicts in Ukraine and the Middle East and provide up-to-date information on the crises.

9:30–10:30 a.m. Breakout Sessions — The Cloister

A Sign of Hope at Public Universities

Justin Dyer
William Inboden
Rob Portman
Heather Wilson
Jenna Silber Storey (Moderator)

Public universities in red states have recently launched some of the most ambitious projects in university-level civic education that our country has seen in decades. New efforts on this front are underway in Arizona, Florida, Mississippi, North Carolina, Ohio, Tennessee, Texas, and Utah. Do these innovative programs have a chance to significantly affect the political monoculture on campus? What are their immediate goals and long-term prospects?

How to Think About Addiction
R. Gil Kerlikowske
Beau Kilmer
Sally Satel
Matthew Continetti (Moderator)

The national overdose rate in the country is unprecedented and has been increasing for decades. Why? As highly potent and cheap illicit opioids and stimulants are increasingly produced in labs (not grown in fields), more pressure falls on efforts to reduce Americans' demand for drugs. This requires policymakers and nonspecialist health professionals to understand addiction more clearly. How have supply and demand–reduction practices changed over the years, and do new forms of "harm reduction" hurt or help?

The US Economic Outlook: Soft Landing, Hard Landing, or No Landing?

Jason Furman
Michael R. Strain
Lawrence H. Summers
Kevin Warsh
Mark Zandi
James Pethokoukis (Moderator)

Many economists expected a recession in 2023. But consumers proved surprisingly resilient in the face of rapidly increasing interest rates, and inflation decelerated with less labor market damage than many feared and expected. What is in store for the economy in 2024? Opinions vary widely, with substantial disagreement among forecasters, investors, and Federal Reserve officials. Will the Fed achieve a "soft landing," in which unemployment stays low and inflation returns to its target rate? Will the delayed effect of interest rates and geopolitical uncertainty lead to a recession? Or will the economy reaccelerate as inflation-adjusted incomes increase? Our panel of top economists will discuss their outlook for 2024.

10:45 a.m.–12:15 p.m. Morning Keynote — The Cloister Ballroom

A Conversation with Jamie Dimon, Chairman and CEO of JPMorgan Chase & Co.
Robert Doar (Moderator)

AEI President Robert Doar interviews JP Morgan CEO Jamie Dimon about the banking industry, Wall Street, the broader business climate, and the economic outlook for the US and the rest of the world.

12:30–1:45 p.m. Luncheon — The Beach Club

A Conversation with Sundar Pichai, CEO of Google and Alphabet
Rob Portman (Moderator)

AEI scholar Rob Portman interviews Google CEO Sundar Pichai for a wide-ranging conversation on the tech industry and America's economic future. Topics will include opportunities and barriers to innovation, the impact of transformative technologies like AI, and the state of Silicon Valley today.

2:00–3:15 p.m. Afternoon Sessions — The Cloister

How to Make Society Friendlier to Families

Erika Bachiochi
Patrick T. Brown
Timothy P. Carney
Ramesh Ponnuru (Moderator)

American birth rates hit record lows even before the pandemic and have kept falling. Parents and children are more anxious than ever before. What are the causes of this baby bust and anxiety boom, and what could reverse them? Building on the arguments of Timothy P. Carney's new book, Family Unfriendly: How Our Culture Made Raising Kids Much Harder Than It Needs to Be, this panel will discuss the policy, economic, and cultural dimensions of this crucial question.

Regulation and the Courts: Reflections on the Business Environment

Rachel Brand
Brent J. McIntosh
Jennifer G. Newstead
Adam J. White (Moderator)

Businesses today face unprecedented regulatory challenges: tidal waves of federal and state regulations, jarring regulatory uncertainty from one administration to the next, and a heated new political environment. For all these reasons and more, major corporations' chief legal officers have a unique window into the modern administrative state. Chief counsels of several leading companies in different sectors will offer insights into the modern regulatory environment.

(Concludes at 3:30 p.m.)

The Return of Antisemitism
Jeffrey A. Rosen
Bret Stephens
Bari Weiss
Danielle Pletka (Moderator)

The phrase "never again" became a mantra after the Holocaust, but in truth, many believed that the kind of Jew hatred that fueled the Nazi genocide had seen its last days in 1945. However, the post–October 7 explosion of antisemitism—in the streets of America and Europe, on college campuses worldwide, and online—belied that belief, leaving Jewish communities shell-shocked. Where did this antisemitism come from? Is it more prevalent on the left than the right? Is anti-Zionism the same as antisemitism? And how can antisemitism be defeated?

An Agenda for Restoring Our Constitution

Jack Landman Goldsmith
Yuval Levin
Patrick McHenry
Adam J. White (Moderator)

When Americans think about threats to the Constitution today, we tend to have in mind particular individuals or extreme events. But the broader dysfunction of key institutions is a deeper and more complicated problem. What would it take to restore the basic balance of our system of government—to help Congress, the executive branch, the courts, the states, and the public reclaim their proper roles? And how can we help the American people understand our constitutional challenges in their full scope?

Is There Life in China After the Chinese Communist Party?

Mike Gallagher
John Garnaut
Daniel Tobin
Dan Blumenthal (Moderator)

Is the Chinese Communist Party's (CCP) rule fundamentally stable? Historically, analysts and policymakers have often overestimated the staying power of totalitarian regimes. After a decade of Stalinesque purges by Chairman Xi Jinping, a failed "zero COVID" policy, economic stagnation, and the absence of a succession plan, will the party hold on to power? What is the state of dissent and opposition in China? Has Xi managed to completely destroy all competing centers of power? If a challenge to CCP rule emerged, what might it look like? This panel will discuss whether the US has an interest in CCP stability and what Washington's strategy toward Chinese internal politics should be.

The End of the Neoliberal Consensus?

Ami Bera
Brian Deese
Byron Donalds
R. Glenn Hubbard
Jason Smith
Alex Brill (Moderator)

President Ronald Reagan pursued a supply-side economic agenda. President Bill Clinton famously declared in 1996 that "the era of big government is over" and balanced the federal budget. Subsequent administrations pursued free trade agreements and championed American economic leadership. But Presidents Donald Trump and Joe Biden have abandoned this consensus approach, favoring protectionism for domestic manufacturing, industrial policy, and fiscal irresponsibility. Should the US return to the "neoliberal consensus," or is a larger role for the government in the economy advisable? Is economic nationalism a phase brought on by populism, or does it represent the future for economic policy?

The Long COVID for America's Schools

Nat Malkus
Robert Doar (Introduction)

The COVID-19 pandemic, and policymakers' responses to it, brought unprecedented challenges to the nation's students and schools. Extended school closures, masking fights, and pandemic disruptions led to historic learning losses, uneven enrollment declines, declining student well-being, and skyrocketing chronic absenteeism. Despite $190 billion in federal pandemic relief, schools are still struggling to recover. How did education leaders respond during the pandemic? What are the primary challenges for schools today? What is the outlook for America's public schools after the pandemic?

The War on Poverty at 60

Nicholas Eberstadt
William Galston
Charles Murray
Scott Winship (Moderator)

In January 1964, President Lyndon Johnson declared "unconditional war on poverty in America." By 1973, a strong economy had pushed wages up and unemployment and poverty down. Since then, the official poverty rate has risen slightly, despite vast increases in federal antipoverty spending. At the same time, upward intergenerational mobility is no better, family breakdown has worsened, and rising numbers of men have dropped out of the labor force. Has the expanded safety net—and reforms to it to promote independence—helped or hurt families? Has the American economy failed the neediest among us?

America in a Disordered World

Frederick W. Kagan
Paul M. Nakasone
Kori Schake
Hal Brands (Moderator)
And others in our community, including:
Ami Bera
Garret Graves
Jimmy Panetta
Michael Waltz
Brad Wenstrup

The world is more disordered and violent today than at any time in decades. Russia's invasion of Ukraine, the largest armed conflict in Europe since World War II, is entering its third year. The war in Gaza and aggression from Iranian-backed militants throughout the region are drawing the US military back into the Middle East. And a US-China cold war is playing out in Asia and around the globe. While the world becomes more unstable, Americans are debating what role the US should have in global conflicts—or if it should have one at all. Join AEI scholars and other members of the AEI community for a discussion on what the role of American power can and should be in a turbulent era.

America's universities are among the nation's greatest assets and sources of pride. But from battles over free expression and affirmative action to an explosion of antisemitism, campus controversies have been rampant in recent years, and many Americans worry about where the academy is headed. In this session, the presidents of Princeton University and the University of Florida will consider the good, the bad, and the ugly of this moment on campus.

Freedom's Forge Redux: Can America Restore Its "Arsenal of Democracy"?

Eric Fanning
Deb Fischer
Rex Geveden
Heather Wilson
Mackenzie Eaglen (Moderator)

Deliberate policy choices over the past 30 years have created a military manufacturing and tech ecosystem that is struggling to ramp up to support allies at war in two regions. Compounding the challenge is that the Pentagon is no longer a monopsony buyer, able to move markets and attract competition. Knocked off its perch as a core inventor of world-changing technologies like the internet and artificial intelligence, the US military must now innovate with existing commercial technologies. How can the defense bureaucracy help industries ranging from the traditional to software startups? Can the American military refill its magazines while preparing for potential war in a third theater?

The Hamas-Israel War: Next Steps

Haviv Gur
Bernard Haykel
Frederick W. Kagan
Danielle Pletka (Moderator)

October 7, 2023, ushered in a new era in the Middle East. The attack was unlike any the Jewish people had seen since the Holocaust. Iran's complicity is clear. Israel has declared total war against its Gaza enemies. And Iran's proxies have, without serious consequence to Tehran, widened the conflict to target US allies and interests. How will this end? Will there be a state of Palestine as a consequence? War with Lebanon? Can Iran skate scot-free?

Teenage Mental Health—an American Crisis

Katie Britt
Shelley Moore Capito
Kay Hymowitz
Sally Satel
Naomi Schaefer Riley (Moderator)

A year ago, the surgeon general declared that the decline in youth mental health was "the defining public health crisis of our time." With significant increases in major depressive episodes, anxiety, mood disorders, and self-harm, children and adolescents are clearly suffering. Yet the pervasiveness of harmful technology, the break-down of institutions like family and religion, and a rise in substance abuse make it hard to pinpoint the precise cause of this crisis. Where did the problem originate? And how will we get ourselves out of it?

The Situation Room: The Wars in Ukraine and the Middle East

Frederick W. Kagan
Kimberly Kagan

Frederick W. Kagan and the Critical Threats Project (CTP) at AEI work closely with their research partner, the Institute for the Study of War (ISW), led by Kimberly Kagan. CTP and ISW are analyzing the ongoing Russian invasion of Ukraine, the Israel-Hamas war, and Iran's activities in the Middle East. The daily update maps are actively used by most major media outlets, including the BBC, CNN, The Guardian, the Financial Times, the New York Times, and Reuters. This session will showcase the most recent CTP-ISW assessments of the conflicts in Ukraine and the Middle East and provide up-to-date information on the crises.

Advances in Artificial Intelligence

Michael R. Strain
Todd C. Young
James Pethokoukis (Moderator)

It seems as if every day brings new advances in artificial intelligence. OpenAI's GPT-4 passes not only the Turing test but the bar exam and medical school exams. Beyond natural language processing, AI could lead to substantial advances in drug discovery, revolutionize education, and stop a mass extinction event. But concerns abound. AI will lead to substantial economic disruption and threatens to displace millions of workers. Some experts are even more worried, suggesting that AI could lead to the extinction of the human race. Join our panel of scientists, economists, and technologists on the front lines of AI development to discuss these amazing technological developments—and what the future might hold.

The Art of Federal Prosecution: Trying Cases in the Southern District of New York
Danielle Sassoon
Robert Doar (Moderator)

The US District Court for the Southern District of New York (SDNY) has witnessed some of the most famous criminal prosecutions in US history, including those of Julius and Ethel Rosenberg, Alger Hiss, and Bernie Madoff. Trials there have more attention and higher stakes than almost anywhere else. In a lively conversation with AEI President Robert Doar, Assistant US Attorney Danielle Sassoon will discuss what it takes to prosecute a major case in the SDNY, drawing from her own experience as one of the lead prosecutors of Sam Bankman-Fried. Sassoon will provide her own perspective on how to build and try complex cases, from investigation through conviction, and the broader importance of the rule of law.

China's Three Roads to Controlling Taiwan: How Can a US-Led Coalition Respond?
Dan Blumenthal
Frederick W. Kagan

Under Xi Jinping's rule, the Chinese Communist Party is publicly preparing to force unification between Taiwan and mainland China, potentially through military action. Many in Washington fear that a major war between the US and China over Taiwan's independence is right around the corner. But what if China can force unification without starting a devastating war? What are China's other roads to achieving its goals in Taiwan? And how can the US and a coalition of other countries prepare for and forestall other scenarios? Join Dan Blumenthal and Frederick W. Kagan for a conversation about their new major project, the Coalition Defense of Taiwan, and their initial findings.

AEI WORLD FORUM | SEA ISLAND, GA

August 22, 2023

The Honorable John Cornyn
United States Senate
517 Hart Senate Office
Washington, DC 20510

Dear Senator Cornyn:

I am writing to invite you to the American Enterprise Institute's annual World Forum, which will be held March 7–10, 2024, in Sea Island, Georgia.

AEI's World Forum has a remarkable 40-year history that has made it one of the most important gatherings of influential leaders grappling with the most critical policy challenges of the day. Every year, we convene a group of world leaders from government, business, media, and academia to discuss the major challenges facing the free world.

What sets AEI's Forum apart from other events of its kind, however, is its reputation as one of the most substantive and thought-provoking off-the-record events that features serious, civil debate on both today's urgent issues and those that are further afield. Your participation as a speaker would add great value to these conversations.

I very much hope you and your spouse will be able to join us next year. I have enclosed the agenda and participant list from this year's World Forum, and I will share with you the 2024 program agenda as it takes shape.

With warm regards,

Robert Doar
President
American Enterprise Institute
