February 9, 2024

Dear Senate Colleague,

We are writing to invite you to participate in an upcoming site visit– "Alabama's Educational Leadership: Insights and Innovations in Math, Reading and Workforce Readiness" – for the Aspen Senior Congressional Education Staff Network from 11:00 AM Tuesday, April 2, 2024, to 10:45 AM Thursday, April 4, 2024 in Birmingham and Montgomery, Alabama.

The site visit offers a comprehensive exploration of Alabama's educational system, focusing on integrating the Science of Reading, the impact of recent math legislation, and the strategic use of ESSER funds. It will include school visits in both Birmingham and Montgomery, including the innovative Alabama Aerospace and Aviation High School. Participants will engage in meaningful discussions with educators, policymakers, and special guests, such as key state leaders from the executive and legislative branches, and representatives from the Alabama State Department of Education. The agenda is thoughtfully structured to provide insights into federal and state educational policies, their implementation at the local level, and how these are shaping student outcomes. On this site visit, staffers will:

1. Gain deeper insights into how the Science of Reading is integrated within Alabama's education system, focusing on its effectiveness, teacher training, and student literacy outcomes.
2. Examine the development and implementation of Alabama's recent math legislation. Assess its early outcomes, including improvements in student proficiency and teacher preparedness in mathematics.
3. Engage in discussions about the federal government's role in shaping education in Alabama, with a specific focus on equity implications, policy impacts, and the balancing of state and federal priorities.
4. Understand how Alabama has strategically utilized Elementary and Secondary School Emergency Relief (ESSER) funds in enhancing its reading and math programs, and evaluate their overall impact on educational reforms and student achievement.
5. Investigate how local schools in Alabama are designing educational programs and school infrastructures in alignment with local workforce and industry demands

We are committed to working with you and the Senate Ethics Committee to ensure compliance with the Senate rules regarding privately-funded sponsored travel. Enclosed you will find all the forms necessary for filing the trip with the Ethics Committee:

- A detailed agenda listing discussion sessions
- A completed Private Sponsor Travel Certification Form and appendix
- A Signed Senate Grantmaking Organization Certification Form
- A list of invited Senate staffers
- A blank Employee Pre-Travel Authorization form

You must complete the Traveler Form and submit it with the enclosed agenda, list of invited staffers, and Primary Trip Sponsor Form and Grantmaking Organization Certification Form via the online ethics portal or as a bundle directly to the Senate Ethics Committee (220 Hart) no later than Friday, March 1, 2024. After receiving the completed travel package, the Ethics Committee will review and issue an approval to you or your sponsoring Member. After the trip, you will need to complete a post-travel form that we will email to you after the site visit.

EDUCATION & SOCIETY

Attendance is by invitation only, with no outside observers or federal lobbyists. Funding is provided solely by grants from established foundations – no government, individual, foreign, corporate, or special interest money is accepted. The Network is supported by The Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation. The Aspen Education & Society Program maintains autonomy over invitations, materials, and the agenda for the retreat.

The retreat promises to be productive and informative. We look forward to seeing you there.

Warm regards,

Ross Wiener Megan Bennett Aisha Zaman Lorén Cox

2:45 – 3:00 PM Transportation to the Legacy Museum

450 North Court Street, Montgomery, AL 36104

3:00 – 5:00 PM Self-Guided Tour of the Equal Justice Initiative Legacy Museum

450 North Court Street, Montgomery, AL 36104

This tour will directly tie in the role of federal policy in the work of state and local education in Alabama. The tour will help link the 12:45 Federal Policy Panel session with the work that is currently happening in Alabama. Congressional staff will be prompted with questions after the panel to consider while they engage with the content of the tour. While the tour is self-guided, the full group will stay together and Aspen facilitators will connect the learning from the museum with the role federal policy makes in education equity,

5:00 – 5:15 PM Walk Back to Hotel (10 min) and Break

6:00 – 6:15 PM Walk to Reception & Dinner (5 min)

Central: 129 Coosa St. Montgomery, AL 36104

6:15 – 8:00 PM Reception & Dinner with faculty, local education leaders

Dinner will feature follow-up discussion with panelists from the earlier sessions, including Alabama A+ Staff, the State Legislators, the Lt. Governor, and the Federal Policy Panelists. Congressional Staffers will be asked to draw from the tour at the Equal Justice Initiative and will be given the opportunity to ask additional questions from panelists to round out the learning for the day,
