The Honorable Bill Cassidy

U.S. Senate
Washington, DC 20515-0306

Dear Senator Cassidy,

I would like to invite you and Laura to save the date for our bipartisan, bicameral congressional conference on Artificial Intelligence: The Promise and the Peril in Bellagio, Italy, April 1-6, 2024, including travel dates. While we await the 2024 congressional calendar, please get back to us with your interest to attend the conference by COB Monday, November 6, 2023. These conference spots fill up quickly, so please RSVP as soon as possible.

Artificial Intelligence and technological innovation have become another avenue for global power competition. Rapid digitalization and development of technology pose significant opportunities and challenges for U.S. global competitiveness, while the government has not yet championed federal policies to address anticipated repercussions, such as economic impact and labor displacement, ethical and social considerations, national security, data governance, regulatory frameworks, and international collaboration. Members of Congress will engage in round-table discussions and informal conversations with invited experts to better understand: (1) what artificial intelligence is and what it means to regulate it; (2) how AI affects American citizens' daily lives; and (3) what steps should be taken to pioneer regulatory frameworks. Members will have a unique opportunity to focus on the area and holistically think about their role in advancing and gauging America's tech innovation.

Attendance is by invitation only, no outside observers, no lobbyists, no congressional staff, and no media. All conference sessions are off-the-record. No foreign governments are accepted to fund the Aspen Institute Congressional Program. As required by the House and Senate ethics rules, we will provide congressional participants with ethics private sponsor forms completed and signed.

Travel expenses, including business class airfare, meals and lodging will be paid for by the Aspen Institute; no expenses for entertainment or recreation are paid for in compliance with ethics rules.

The Congressional Program is part of the Aspen Institute, Inc. a nonprofit organization founded in 1950. The Congressional Program was created to promote leadership on public policy by bringing together legislators from both political parties with internationally renowned scholars for high level discussions and analysis. Since our program's inception, more than 523 members of Congress have participated in the 156 domestic and international conferences.

We hope you can join us for this important conference.

Sincerely,

Chl ~ Dent

Artificial Intelligence: the Promise and the Peril

April 1-6, 2024 | Bellagio, Italy

AGENDA

Congressional Program Executive Director Charlie Dent moderates the discussion sessions, recognizes members of Congress who have questions, and is assisted by a timekeeper to ensure the conversation is quick paced and every member of Congress has an opportunity to ask questions and discuss the issues.

SATURDAY, March 30

Sen. Bill Cassidy, and his wife, Laura Cassidy, depart New Orleans at 12:05 pm on Delta 1368.

SUNDAY, March 31

Sen. Bill Cassidy and Laura Cassidy arrive in Milan at 9:30 am on Delta 184 and continue travel at personal expense.

MONDAY, APRIL 1

U.S. participants depart the U.S.

Sen. Bill Cassidy and Laura Cassidy continue travel at personal expense.

TUESDAY, APRIL 2:

U.S. participants arrive in Bellagio, Italy throughout the day.

Sen. Bill Cassidy and Laura Cassidy continue travel at personal expense and join the conference for the first session tonight.

7 - 9 PM: Working Dinner

Seating is arranged to expose participants to a diverse range of views and provide the opportunity for a meaningful exchange of ideas. Scholars and lawmakers are rotated daily.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 3:

8 - 9 AM: Breakfast

9 - 9:15 AM: Introduction and Framework of the Conference

This conference is organized into roundtable conversations, working lunches and pre-dinner remarks. This segment will highlight how the conference will be conducted, how those with questions will be recognized, and how responses will be timed to allow for as much engagement as possible.

Speaker:

Charlie Dent, Executive Director and Vice President,

9:15 - 11:15 AM: Roundtable Discussion
Artificial Intelligence 101

In this session, AI industry experts will cover the basics of Artificial Intelligence (AI), including the underlying technology, the history of AI and Machine Learning, current use cases, and what the future may look like.

Speakers:
Raffi Krikorian, Chief Technical Officer, Emerson Collective
Alondra Nelson, Harold F. Linder Professor of Social Science, Institute for Advanced Study

11:15 - 11:25 AM: Break

11:25 AM – 1:15 PM: Roundtable Discussion
Geopolitics of Artificial Intelligence

Perhaps more than any other technology, the global competition around AI is both a matter of national security as well as an economic and innovation race. This session will provide an overview of AI from a global perspective, highlighting security risks and international policies.

Speakers:
Klon Kitchen, Managing Director, Beacon Global Strategies
Eva Maydell, Member of the European Parliament

1:15 - 2 PM: Working Lunch
Discussion continues between members of Congress and experts on geopolitics of artificial intelligence with Klon Kitchen and Eva Maydell.

2 - 5 PM: Individual Discussions
Scholars will be available to meet individually with members of Congress for in-depth discussion of ideas raised in the morning sessions, including Raffi Krikorian, Alondra Nelson, Klon Kitchen, Eva Maydell, David Rhew.

5 - 6:15 PM: Pre-Dinner Remarks
New Frontiers: AI and Healthcare

The intersection of AI and healthcare represents a new frontier in medical innovation, promising transformative advancements across diagnosis, treatment, and patient care. Artificial intelligence applications in healthcare range from predictive analytics and personalized medicine to robotic surgeries and drug discovery. Machine learning algorithms analyze vast datasets, enabling early detection of diseases, optimizing treatment plans, and improving overall healthcare outcomes. However, this technological frontier comes with ethical and regulatory challenges, including privacy concerns, data security, algorithmic bias, and the need for transparent decision-making. Members of Congress will learn about how AI's ability to process and interpret complex medical information can accelerate research and development but also surface structural inequities.

Speaker:
David Rhew, Chief Medical Officer, Microsoft

7 - 9 PM: Working Dinner
Seating is arranged to expose participants to a diverse range of views and provide the opportunity for a meaningful exchange of ideas. Scholars and lawmakers are rotated daily. Discussions will focus on the role of AI in medicine.

THURSDAY, APRIL 4:
8-9 AM: Breakfast

9 - 11:15 AM: Roundtable Discussion:
Deepfakes and Democracy: the Looming Collision of AI and Elections

In 2024, almost one billion people around the globe will vote in national elections. As malicious actors continue their assault on democratic processes worldwide, AI tools can be weaponized to wrongly influence people. In this session, experts will lay out specific threats enabled by AI, including deep fakes, microtargeting of voters, and automated content distribution. The panelists will review current and potential guardrails to keep democracy on track.

Speakers:
Chris Krebs, Chief Intelligence and Public Policy Officer, SentinelOne
Vivian Schiller, Vice President and Executive Director, Aspen Digital, Aspen Institute

11:15 - 11:30 AM: Break

11:45 AM - 1:15 PM: Roundtable Discussion:
The Good News: AI and Innovation in Education, Healthcare, and Climate
The integration of artificial intelligence brings promising prospects for innovation in various critical sectors. In education, AI is revolutionizing personalized learning experiences, tailoring educational content to individual needs and optimizing teaching methodologies. It opens up new avenues for adaptive learning systems, equipping students with the skills necessary for the evolving job market. In healthcare, AI applications are enhancing diagnostic accuracy, streamlining administrative tasks, and accelerating drug discovery processes. In climate change, AI is playing a pivotal role from optimizing energy consumption to facilitating predictive modeling for environmental changes. This panel will help Members of Congress uncover how to ensure that AI-driven innovations benefit society and promote inclusive, equitable access to these technologies.

Speakers:
Vilas Dhar, President and Trustee, Patrick J. McGovern Foundation
Anna Makanju, Vice President, Global Affairs, OpenAI

1:15 - 2 PM: Working Lunch
Discussion continues between members of Congress and scholars on addressing the looming collision of AI and elections.

2 - 5 PM: Individual Discussions
Scholars will be available to meet individually with members of Congress for in-depth discussion of ideas raised in the morning sessions, including Chris Krebs, Vilas Dhar, Vivian Schiller, and Anna Makanju.

5 - 6:10 PM: Pre-Dinner Remarks
Building AI We Can Trust
New techniques have significantly improved the traditional, costly, and inefficient way to create and deploy AI models. This offers exciting new possibilities for increasing innovation, efficiency, and productivity. However, with the benefits come also additional risks besides those already considered in traditional machine learning models, and questions about the safety, development, deployment, and use of generative AI. The Members of Congress will learn about the latest techniques to build governance into the heart of the AI lifecycle (from data to models and applications), align AI models with values, identify and mitigate hallucination and other risks, address biases, and build AI guardrails. The discussion will include how AI is being used to advance scientific discovery, as well as initiatives to accelerate progress and increase participation and the broad diffusion of the benefits of AI through open innovation.

Speaker:
Darío Gil, Senior Vice President and Director of Research, IBM

7 - 9 PM: Working Dinner
Seating is arranged to expose participants to a diverse range of views and provide the opportunity for a meaningful exchange of ideas. Scholars and lawmakers are rotated daily. Discussions will focus on AI 's role in innovation and democracy.

FRIDAY, APRIL 5:
8 - 9 AM: Breakfast

9 - 11:15 AM: Roundtable Discussion
AI and the Future of Labor Market

There are mixed perceptions about AI's role in a new labor market: AI will open up new labor markets and improve employee satisfaction or lead to an epic loss of jobs.

However, everyone agrees that AI will change the nature of work and workers. This panel will uncover how companies are approaching these opportunities and risks.

Speakers:
Athina Kanioura, Executive Vice President, Chief Strategy and Transformation Officer, PepsiCo
Mike Haley, Senior Vice President, Research, Autodesk

11:15 - 11:25 AM: Break

11:25 AM - 1:15 PM: Individual Discussions
Scholars will be available to meet individually with members of Congress for in-depth discussion of ideas raised in the morning sessions, including Athina Kanioura and Mike Haley.

1:15 - 2 PM: Working Lunch
Discussion continues between members of Congress and experts on policy takeaways from the conference.

2 - 5 PM: Policy Reflections for Members of Congress

This time is set aside for Members of Congress to reflect on what they learned during the conference and discuss their views on implications for U.S. policy.

7 - 9 PM: Working Dinner
Seating is arranged to expose participants to a diverse range of views and provide the opportunity for a meaningful exchange of ideas. Scholars and lawmakers are rotated daily. Discussions will focus on policy takeaways from the conference.

SATURDAY, APRIL 6:

5 AM-9 AM
Conference participants depart Bellagio by private bus for Milan airport to the U.S.
Sen. Bill Cassidy and Laura Cassidy depart Milan at 8:40 am on Delta 287 and arrive in New Orleans at 5:38 pm on Delta 1387.

SELECT COMMITTEE ON ETHICS

March 28, 2024

The Honorable Bill Cassidy
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

Dear Senator Cassidy:

This responds to your recent correspondence requesting approval from the Select Committee on Ethics (the Committee) to accept an invitation you and your spouse received to travel to the conference on Artificial Intelligence: The Promise and the Peril in Bellagio, Italy, on April 1–6, 2024, sponsored by the Aspen Institute. Provided that you adhere to the guidance set forth below, it appears that it is permissible for you to accept necessary expenses from the Aspen Institute in connection with this trip.

Background

Based on your communication with the Committee, the background in this matter is as follows.[1] The Aspen Institute invited you and your spouse to travel to the conference on Artificial Intelligence: The Promise and the Peril in Bellagio, Italy, on April 1–6, 2024. The Aspen Institute certified to the Committee that it will pay the necessary expenses[2] related to the travel and that it is neither a lobbyist, lobbying firm, agent of a foreign principal, or otherwise acting as a representative or agent of a foreign government. The Aspen Institute has also certified that it does not retain or employ a registered lobbyist or agent of a foreign principal and that no registered lobbyist or agent of a foreign principal will accompany you at any point throughout your trip.[3]

Additionally, you inform the Committee that you plan to extend your trip for a personal purpose. Based on the information you submitted, the Committee understands that, for a personal purpose, you intend to extend your trip in Milan, Italy for two days before the beginning of officially related events. You must personally pay the cost of any additional expenses incurred as a result of extending your trip.

Discussion

Privately sponsored travel includes any gift of travel and travel-related expenses for travel outside the Senate duty station, including transportation, lodging, food and refreshments, and conference fees and materials, whether paid for directly, reimbursed, or provided directly, from a private individual or entity, in connection with a Member's, officer's, or employee's official Senate duties. Incorporating reforms from the Honest Leadership and Open Government Act of 2007 (HLOGA), Pub. L. 110–81 (2007), Senate Rule 35.2 permits Members, officers, and employees to accept privately sponsored travel only with the prior written approval of the Committee.

[2] The term "necessary expenses" has a specific definition. See Select Committee on Ethics Regulations and Guidelines for Privately Sponsored Travel at 10-13.

The Committee's approval process is governed by the Regulations and Guidelines for Privately Sponsored Travel (Travel Regulations). The Travel Regulations contain detailed requirements regarding who may sponsor travel; time limits for trips; and the type and amount of expenses that can be reimbursed.

Entities that do not retain or employ a lobbyist or foreign agent and all non-profit organizations designated as tax-exempt organizations under § 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, regardless of whether they retain or employ a lobbyist or foreign agent, may sponsor foreign trips for up to seven days. The seven-day limitation means seven 24-hour periods, calculated from the time of arrival in the trip location to the time of departure from the trip location. For such trips, neither lobbyists nor foreign agents may accompany a Senate invitee at any point throughout the trip.[4] This means that neither lobbyists nor foreign agents may accompany Senate invitees at any point to and from the event, at the event itself, or at the location being visited.[5]

The Committee has determined that § 501(c)(3) non-profit organizations that are classified as private foundations, as opposed to public charities, may not pay for transportation from the United States to a foreign country.[6] However, the Aspen Institute represented to the Committee that it is a § 501(c)(3) public charity, as opposed to a private foundation, pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code.[7]

Under Senate Rule 35, a Member or officer who receives payment or reimbursement for necessary expenses related to fact-finding travel must disclose those expenses to the Secretary of the Senate by filing the completed Senators and Officers Post-Travel Disclosure of Travel Expenses (Form RE-3), along with a copy of the Private Sponsor Travel Certification Form, and all relevant attachments (e.g., the private sponsor's invitation and itinerary) within 30 days of the conclusion of Privately Sponsored Travel.[8]

Consistent with these standards and Committee precedent, the Aspen Institute's factual representations, and the guidance contained in this letter regarding extending your trip for a personal purpose, it appears that it is permissible for you to accept necessary expenses from the [4] The term "de minimis" has a specific definition. See Select Committee on Ethics Regulations and Guidelines for Privately Sponsored Travel at 6-8.

[5] See Select Committee on Ethics Regulations and Guidelines for Privately Sponsored Travel at 6-10.

[6] See 26 U.S.C. § 4941 et seq. Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code broadly defines non-profit, charitable, tax-exempt organizations. These § 501(c)(3) organizations are then further defined or designated as "public charities" and "private foundations."

[7] 26 U.S.C. § 501(c)(3).

[8] Trip extensions for any purpose do not extend this deadline.

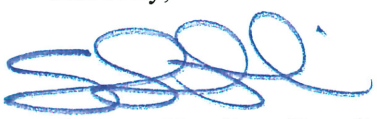

Aspen Institute in connection with this trip, provided that the actual travel and travel-related expenses conform to the information and materials you provided, and the travel and all required documents are disclosed to the Secretary of the Senate (Office of Public Records). Necessary expenses may include travel expenses for the spouse of a Member if the Member determines that the attendance of the spouse is appropriate to assist in the representation of the Senate.

Please be advised that the United States Constitution prohibits the acceptance of any gift, including a meal, from a foreign government without the consent of Congress. In the Foreign Gifts and Decorations Act (FGDA), Congress consented to the acceptance by federal government officials of: (1) gifts of minimal value and (2) travel or the expenses for travel taking place entirely outside the United States, from a foreign government (which includes those acting as a representative or agent of a foreign government).[9] The Senate has defined minimal value as $100 or less. Further, pursuant to FGDA, there are certain reporting and procedural requirements that are imposed upon Members, officers, and employees who accept gifts from a foreign government. Please review the Committee's "Dear Colleague" letter of January 11, 2019, setting forth the items to be included in filing that report.

Finally, Senate Rule 34 requires a Member, on their financial disclosure report, to make an annual disclosure of the receipt of payments or reimbursements under Senate Rule 35 from a private sponsor for officially-related travel expenses where, in the aggregate, travel expenses exceed $480 from that sponsor during a calendar year. However, if a Member, officer, or employee properly reports the receipt of necessary expenses for such travel to the Secretary of the Senate within 30 days of the travel, as discussed above, the travel expenses need not be disclosed a second time on their financial disclosure report.

I hope you find this information helpful. If you have any additional questions, please do not hesitate to contact the Committee.

Sincerely,

Shannon Hamilton Kopplin

[✔] I certify that the sponsor is not an entity that is owned or operated by a foreign government.

[✔] I certify that the sponsor does not receive funding from a foreign government.

Purpose and Details

Provide a brief description of the trip.

The conference will take an in depth look at Artificial Intelligence, and how to understand a rapidly evolving technology that impacts every day life, including communications, privacy, and all of the ethical implications to be considered.
As AI develops, it will continue to influence industries, economies, and governance structures in the U.S. and across the globe. Federal policymakers will grapple with the challenges posed by AI, including ethics, the regulation of AI applications, and the global collaboration needed to navigate its international implications.

Explain how the purpose of the trip relates to your organization's mission.

The Aspen Institute, Inc., is a non-profit organization, and its broad mission is conducting nonpartisan forums and the exchange of ideas on issues impacting the U.S. and the world. AICP is a program of the Aspen Institute, Inc., that provides nonpartisan educational conferences and educational forums for members of Congress and senior congressional staff members. The Italy conference will examine rapidly evolving Artificial Intelligence, the impact on the U.S. and the world in terms of the economies, challenges of privacy, future employment and the labor market, and numerous other factors. The conference will allow participating members of Congress to discuss these complex policy issues along with experts in the field of Artificial Intelligence.

Is your organization the only sponsor for this trip?

(●) Yes ( ) No

If No, describe your organization's role in planning the trip.

If there are multiple sponsors, each sponsor must submit Organization Information (Page 1 of the Private Sponsor Travel Certification Form) and a Signature Page Form.
