ATTACHMENT 1 – CHANGES FROM APPROVED PRE-TRAVEL

Note: Material changes to a trip that occur after the Committee has issued an approval letter may invalidate the Committee's approval. Please contact the Committee with any questions regarding changes to an approved trip.

Were there any changes to the pre-approved travel expenses? (Transportation, Meals, Lodging, Other)?

Yes No

Expense Change	Revised Amount	Explanation
Meals	$205.17	We ended up spending far less on meals. The lunch at the ILRI hotel on the first day came out to $16 per person (instead of $10) and the dinner on 11/9 came out to $10 per person (instead of $30). The lunch at the Hilton hotel on 11/14 came out to $15 per person (instead of $10) and we did not eat dinner on 11/14 (we budgeted for $20). The lunches and dinners while we were in Nekemte and Shambu totaled $27.39 per person (11/10 through 11/13), less than we originally estimated. Also, because only 3 staff ended up joining, the total estimated costs are all lower - the total meal expenses came out to $68.39 per staffer, or a total of $205.17.
Misc. Expenses	$348.29	For the meetings at the Hilton on 11/14, we booked a small, private conference room and provided coffee and snacks to the group. The rationale for the additional charge was to ensure a private, quiet space to meet. This room was used for the trip debriefing and feedback conversations between the Senate staff and ICRC staff.
Lodging	$495.19	The estimated lodging costs were consistent with actual costs per traveler; however, since only 3 of the 5 Senate staff were able to travel with us, the total is slightly lower, at $165.06 per staffer for a total of $495.19.

Were there any changes to the pre-approved itinerary?

Yes No

Explanation: The schedule on Thursday, November 13 changed in the morning. The Zonal Administrator had a conflict during our original meeting time, so we fit in a visit to the Shambu Civilian Prison from 8:30-9:30 and then met with the Zonal Administrator just after from 9:40-10:40. The rest of the meetings on Thursday happened as planned. 8:30-9:30: Visit to Shambu Civilian Prison led by Commander Tesema Tura. The visit will highlight ICRC's work to improve conditions of detention, including in areas of hygiene, healthcare, and nutrition. Participants will see improved kitchen equipment, provision of medical supplies/medicines, and construction of the latrines and showers. 9:30-9:40: Transfer to meeting with Zonal Administrator 09:40 – 10:40: Meeting with Miresa Fite, Zonal Administrator of Horo Guduru Wellega. The participants will gain an understanding on the conflict dynamics, security issues and humanitarian concerns.

Were there any additional changes to the pre-approved trip?

Yes No

Explanation: Due to the ongoing government shutdown, only 3 of the Senate staffers were able to travel with us: Ryan Arazi (Office of Senator Tim Kaine), Claudia Brady (Office of Senator Chuck Schumer), and Hunter Koski (Office of Senator Bill Cassidy). Because our group size shrank, we ended up taking the 3 staffers on the Oromia itinerary.

Op

to join a Congressional staff delegation trip to Ethiopia hosted and led by the International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC). The trip will showcase the ICRC's response to the country's history of conflict and political tensions. Participants will witness firsthand how the ICRC responds to urgent humanitarian needs in a country critical to U.S. interests in East Africa, affecting relationships with Egypt, Somalia, Sudan, and others.

The trip will last one week, departing for Addis Ababa on Saturday, November 8th and returning to Washington, D.C. on Saturday, November 15th.

The trip will outline activities that will allow Congressional staff to gain a deeper understanding of conflict-affected populations and ICRC's operations in the field. Two program itineraries may run in parallel, or with a smaller group, a single itinerary will be followed. Please note that ICRC may need to restructure the itinerary based on the number of participants. Participants will be notified of any changes as soon as possible. The ICRC will cover round-trip airfare, accommodations, meals, and in-country transportation. Participants will be responsible for complying with applicable Senate rules for privately-sponsored travel.

Attend all scheduled meetings and briefings, as these are essential to the success of the visit. We further ask participants to follow all security and communication protocols to ensure the smooth execution of the trip, participant and staff safety, and compliance with Congressional rules.

Confirm your participation by 12:00pm on Friday, October 3rd, and indicate if you have a preferred itinerary option. We will do our best to accommodate participants who are prepared to attend either program. To confirm, please respond via email to kelose@icrc.org. Following confirmation of your participation, I will reach out to you regarding the upcoming Senate Ethics deadline.

We hope this is an opportunity for you to join us on this unique journey to Ethiopia, and we look forward to your participation. We hope to hear from you soon.

History of Congressional Travel

ICRC's Washington office, which manages relations with the U.S. Government, has sponsored Congressional travel for over 10 years. This initiative is crucial for facilitating Congressional oversight and fostering deeper understanding of the unique humanitarian contexts in which the ICRC operates and ICRC's unique value-add in addressing the humanitarian needs in those contexts. By offering firsthand exposure to ICRC's work, these trips enable Congressional staff to witness the critical assistance provided by ICRC to vulnerable populations. These experiences underscore the ongoing importance of continued U.S. Government support for ICRC's mission and humanitarian efforts worldwide. Recent trip destinations include the Philippines, Azerbaijan, and the Democratic Republic of Congo.

Educational Activities

ICRC's Washington, DC office engages U.S. Government interlocutors in confidential dialogue to discuss humanitarian contexts around the world. These briefings are held on a rolling basis with key interlocutors in both the executive and legislative branches, as well as with other relevant authorities in Washington, D.C. In addition, the ICRC organizes workshops on International Humanitarian Law (the law of armed conflict) and other events and activities to facilitate the exchange of information, particularly with armed forces. The ICRC also offers courses, both virtual and in-person, to educate the public about critical humanitarian contexts and the principles of the law of armed conflict.

Purpose and Details

Provide a brief description of the trip.

The week-long visit to Ethiopia will allow Congressional staff to witness the humanitarian impacts of armed conflict and the ICRC's ongoing response to provide assistance and protection to the affected population. Staffers will arrive together to Addis Ababa, and split into two groups with parallel itineraries to Tigray or Oromia. In Tigray, staffers will see ICRC operations in a post-conflict environment focusing on improving health outcomes, especially for the weapon wounded, access to clean water and sanitation, improving livelihoods, particularly to improve food security, and how the ICRC coordinates with the Ethiopian Red Cross. In Oromia, the participants will see consequences of armed conflict between the government and non-state armed groups. Participants will see ICRC-supported health facilities and expertise for war wounded patients, improved water and sanitation, and agricultural support to improve food production, as well as people affected by displacement and separation.

Explain how the purpose of the trip relates to your organization's mission.

The ICRC's Mission, as mandated by the Geneva Conventions, is to provide protection and assistance to populations affected by armed conflict and to relieve their suffering. As a party to the Geneva Conventions, and contributor the ICRC, the United States government enables the ICRC's work in conflict context like Ethiopia. By participating in this visit, Congressional staff will gain a better understanding of how International Humanitarian Law is applied in the field, and how the United States supports the ICRC's humanitarian response as foreseen in the Geneva Conventions.

Is your organization the only sponsor for this trip?

Yes No
