Dear Ms. Stephenson,

On behalf of the Global Women's Innovation Network (GlobalWIN), we would like to invite you to join us for an educational trip to Mexico City, Mexico. We will depart Washington Dulles International Airport (IAD) on Tuesday, September 23rd and programming will begin on Wednesday, September 24th. We will return to Washington Dulles International Airport (IAD), on Friday afternoon, September 26th.

On the ground in Mexico City, GlobalWIN will host events and meetings on issues such as AI, manufacturing, trade, female leadership, innovation in tech, and the US/Mexican bilateral relationship. More information about GlobalWIN can be found on our website. We have confirmed with a variety of GlobalWIN allies to schedule corporate site visits, meetings with senior women in the Mexican government and the US Embassy, as well as a series of receptions and cultural events to round out our time in Mexico City, Mexico. Your work on these topics and active participation in our discussions will be a great asset to our delegation, which will include senior staff from both Republican and Democratic House and Senate offices.

GlobalWIN will cover your travel, hotel, and meal expenses related to the trip and programming, in compliance with the rules under House and Senate ethics laws. The submission of your ethics materials is due Friday August 22nd, so please submit your ethics as soon as possible.

Sincerely,

History of Congressional Travel

Describe your organization's history of sponsoring congressional travel.

Since its founding in 2009, GlobalWIN has proudly sponsored Congressional staff trips, including several domestic visits with participation from Senate staff. These have included our annual trip to New York City, as well as trips to Baltimore, Boston, and Seattle. This past year, we hosted our inaugural bicameral international trip to Canada, which proved to be highly valuable for all participants. We believe that hosting this year's program in Mexico City—while continuing to include women leaders from both Republican and Democratic Senate offices—will offer another meaningful and impactful opportunity for bipartisan engagement and professional development.

Educational Activities

Describe the educational activities performed by your organization other than sponsoring congressional travel.

GlobalWIN is dedicated to highlighting and empowering women leaders by bridging the public and private sectors through a diverse portfolio of programming. Our initiatives include high-impact career development workshops, substantive policy roundtables, strategic networking receptions, engagements at embassies in Washington, D.C., and educational trips across the United States and internationally. Through these efforts, we foster meaningful dialogue, cultivate leadership, and promote bipartisan collaboration among emerging and established women leaders.

Purpose and Details

Provide a brief description of the trip.

During our time in Mexico City, GlobalWIN will host events and meetings on issues such as AI, manufacturing, trade, female leadership, innovation in tech, and the US/Mexican bilateral relationship. More information about GlobalWIN can be found on our website. We have confirmed with a variety of GlobalWIN allies to schedule corporate site visits, meetings with senior women in the Mexican government and the US Embassy, as well as a series of receptions and cultural events to round out our time in Mexico City, Mexico. Work on these topics and active participation in our discussions will be a great asset to our delegation, which will include senior staff from both Republican and Democratic House and Senate offices.

Explain how the purpose of the trip relates to your organization's mission.

A visit to Mexico City aligns with GlobalWIN's mission to foster broader conversations beyond Washington by connecting Congressional staff with global partners on innovation, technology, and economic growth. As part of our commitment to advancing women leaders across the public and private sectors, this bicameral international trip will offer meaningful engagement with key stakeholders and like-minded organizations. The U.S. and Mexico share one of the world's most integrated trading relationships, supporting millions of jobs and extensive collaboration—especially among U.S. companies operating in Mexico. Building on the success of our recent Canada trip, this visit will highlight the importance of North American partnerships and offer participants a deeper understanding of cross-border economic ties that directly inform U.S. policy priorities.
