Dear Stephanie,

I am writing to invite you to join a Congressional staff delegation (StaffDel) trip to Ukraine hosted and led by the International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC). The trip will showcase the ICRC's diverse operations in Kyiv, Odesa, and Mykolaiv, and highlight the urgent humanitarian needs in the country.

The ICRC organizes Congressional field trips to provide a first-hand understanding of our field operations and bring attention to the critical humanitarian and security needs in areas of interest to U.S. policymakers. This StaffDel will last one week, departing for Ukraine on Friday, May 23rd, and returning to Washington, D.C. on Friday, May 30th.

Attached is the itinerary outlining the activities that will make this StaffDel both meaningful and productive. Please note that due to the evolving nature of the armed conflict in Ukraine, ICRC may need to restructure the itinerary to ensure the safety and comfort of all participants. Participants will be notified of any changes as soon as possible.

The ICRC will cover round-trip airfare, accommodations, meals, and incidentals. Our trips comply with all applicable Congressional rules for privately-sponsored travel.

We ask participants to attend all scheduled meetings and briefings, as these are essential to the success of the visit. Please note that participants are required to follow all protocols set by the ICRC to ensure the smooth execution of the trip, participant and staff safety, and compliance with Congressional rules.

Please kindly confirm your participation by Sunday, April 13th. To confirm, please respond via email to cablethomas@icrc.org and lmalenas@icrc.org. If you have any questions or need further information, please feel free to reach out, and we will gladly be of assistance. If for any reason you do not receive acknowledgement of your email within 24 hours, please resend as we have had external emails blocked occasionally. Following confirmation of your participation, I will reach out with a list of required information so as to meet the upcoming ethics deadline.

We are excited about the opportunity to have you join us on this important trip to Ukraine, and we look forward to your participation.
Thank you for considering this invitation and we hope to hear from you soon.

Warmly,

Catherine

History of Congressional Travel

ICRC's Washington office, which manages relations with the U.S. Government, has sponsored Congressional travel for over 10 years. This initiative is crucial for facilitating Congressional oversight and fostering deeper understanding of the unique humanitarian contexts in which the ICRC operates and ICRC's unique value-add in addressing the humanitarian needs in those contexts. By offering firsthand exposure to ICRC's work, these trips enable Congressional staff to witness the critical assistance provided by ICRC to vulnerable populations. These experiences underscore the ongoing importance of continued U.S. Government support for ICRC's mission and humanitarian efforts worldwide. Recent trip destinations include the Philippines, Armenia, Azerbaijan, Georgia and the Democratic Republic of Congo.

Educational Activities

ICRC's Washington, DC office engages U.S. Government interlocutors in confidential dialogue to discuss humanitarian contexts around the world. These briefings are held on a rolling basis with key interlocutors in both the executive and legislative branches, as well as with other relevant authorities in Washington, D.C. In addition, the ICRC organizes workshops on International Humanitarian Law (the law of armed conflict) and other events and activities to facilitate the exchange of information, particularly with armed forces. The ICRC also offers courses, both virtual and in-person, to educate the public about critical humanitarian contexts and the principles of the law of armed conflict.
