Tour Constellation's Calvert Cliffs Nuclear Facility
Nuclear Power Plant
Thursday, May 28, 2026

8:45 AM Congressional Staff board a bus at Union Station, Washington, DC

8:50 AM- 9:15 AM Bus departs from the Union Station for the Constellation's Calvert Cliffs Nuclear Facility Nuclear Facility
Location: 1650 Calvert Cliffs Pkwy, Lusby, MD 20657
Overview: Ingrid Izaguirre, Executive Director, Climate Solutions Foundation
Ingrid will welcome everyone on the bus, highlighting what makes this site unique is that it's Maryland's only nuclear plant—and it provides most of the state's clean electricity.

8:50 AM – 10:30 Depart Union Station to Constellation's Cliff Nuclear Facility

Drive time 1 hour and 20 minutes

10:30 AM Coach arrives at the Constellation's Calvert Cliffs Nuclear Facility

10:30 AM – 10:45 Welcome Process into security (Must have your ID on your person)

10:45 AM – 11:30 Presentation: Intros, Safety Protocol and Site Overview
Location: VP Conference Room
Constellation's Calvert Cliffs Nuclear Facility is located on the western shore of the Chesapeake Bay in Calvert County and is Maryland's only nuclear energy facility. The station operates two pressurized water reactors with a combined generating capacity of approximately 1,775 megawatts—enough to supply roughly 30% of the electricity used by homes and businesses across Maryland. Beyond energy production, the plant is a major economic contributor. It supports hundreds of high-paying jobs and generates significant local revenue, including about $22.8 million annually in taxes that help fund schools, infrastructure, and other public services.

11:30 AM– 12:45 PM Plant Tour –They will be guided by a licensed Nuclear Reactor Operator, Mechanical and Electrical Engineers and a Project Manager. (These change routinely and they are unable to provide the names)

11:30 AM – 12:00 PM Site: Waterfront Intake Structure

This will be an opportunity for the group visiting the waterfront intake at the Calvert Cliffs Energy Center to see an example of the energy–water–climate nexus in action: a facility that produces low-carbon electricity while relying on enormous volumes of water from the Chesapeake Bay for cooling. They would recognize both the benefits and trade-offs—how nuclear power supports decarbonization yet introduces localized ecological pressures through fish entrainment and impingement and contributes to thermal stress when warmer water is discharged back into an already climate-sensitive estuary. At the same time, the expert would be thinking about future risks, including rising water temperatures, sea-level rise, and storm surge, all of which could affect the plant's reliability and efficiency. Ultimately, the visit would reinforce a systems-level insight: even "clean" energy infrastructure is deeply intertwined with natural systems, and managing climate change requires balancing emissions reduction with ecosystem protection and long-term resilience.

12:00 PM – 12:20Site: Turbine Deck

Nuclear power plants heat water to produce steam. The steam is used to spin large turbines that generate electricity. The group will understand how well maintained the turbines are and how electricity is produced.

12:20 PM – 12:40Site: Radiation Protection

During your visit, you'll learn how Calvert Cliffs protects workers, the public, and the environment from radiation. Using the ALARA principle keeping exposure As Low As Reasonably Achievable workers are closely monitored, controlled areas are strictly managed, and federal oversight ensures safety. You'll see how nuclear power can provide reliable, carbon-free electricity while maintaining the highest standards of radiation protection.

12:40 PM – 1:00 PMSite: Spent Fuel Storage

Spent fuel storage facilities contain deep pools of water holding used fuel assemblies, sometimes showing a faint blue glow from Cherenkov radiation. After cooling, the fuel is moved into large, sealed concrete and steel casks stored outdoors. The site looks like a quiet, secure industrial area with fencing and monitoring systems.

FOUNDATION

Dear Katherine,

The Climate Solutions Foundation (CSF) invites you to join our bipartisan staff delegation on Thursday, May 28, 2026 for a site visit to Constellation's Calvert Cliffs nuclear facility in Maryland. Programming will include a guided tour of the nuclear power plant, and a lunch roundtable with partners in the energy sector. Staff will have the opportunity to discuss the evolving role of nuclear energy within the U.S. energy mix, particularly in the context of growing demand, grid modernization needs, and the economic factors guiding investment. Your work on these topics and commitment to durable policy solutions will be a great asset to our delegation.

This visit offers a valuable opportunity to see firsthand how a nuclear plant operates and to better understand its day-to-day role in electricity generation for the wider grid system. By inviting ecosystem partners, the roundtable will provide staff with multiple perspectives on the current state of the nuclear sector and the factors influencing costs, operations, and reliability. The conversation will also explore how nuclear energy interacts within a wider set of considerations, including other types of generation, end-use demand, consumer costs, transmission, reliability, and security.

The Climate Solutions Foundation (CSF) was founded in 2019 as an educational, bipartisan 501(c)(3) non-profit organization. Our mission is to bring together ideologically diverse Members of Congress and their staff, global leaders, and corporate and trade executives to discuss energy, climate science, economics, and policy. Foundation Co-Chairs Senator Mary Landrieu and Congressman Carlos Curbelo launched the Foundation in 2019 with a series of bipartisan, bicameral gatherings of Members of Congress, executives, and scientists at Senator Landrieu's dining room table with one purpose: to build trust within the energy and climate community that inspires collaborative efforts to advance durable policy solutions. Since then, CSF has expanded its programming to include domestic educational trips, international trips to the UN's Conference of Parties (COP) convenings, congressional staff briefings, receptions, and a congressional fellowship program.

CSF offers to cover your transportation to and from Constellation's Calvert Cliffs facility as well as meal expenses related to the trip, in compliance with the rules under House and Senate ethics laws.

Space is limited on this trip. To ensure submission of ethics materials to the appropriate committees by Tuesday, April 28, 2026, please let us know at your earliest convenience if you are interested in participating by calling or emailing our Events Director, Andrea Mietus, at (301) 518-6336 or andrea@mietusevents.com.

Sincerely,

Ingrid Izaguirre
Executive Director, Climate Solutions Foundation
