Were there any changes to the pre-approved travel expenses? (Transportation, Meals, Lodging, Other)?

☑ Yes ○ No

Expense Change	Revised Amount	Explanation
Transportation	$2,043.80	Previous amount was an estimated amount that we allocated for each traveler. Following travel, we were able to more accurately account for the true cost spent on transportation, including onsite shuttles and flights.
Meals	$255.00	Previous amount was based on estimates amounts we received from vendors amount for each traveler. Following travel, we were able to more accurately account for the true cost spent on meals, including changing two meals on Friday, August 21 and Saturday, August 22. Because we shifted the working lunch that was slated for Friday, August 21 from 13:30 - 14:40 from the restaurant La Imprenta Restaurant to a box lunch and the Mercado del Puerto working lunch to a box lunch, we reduced the cost significantly. Thursday: $42 Friday: $92 Saturday: $82 Sunday: $39
Lodging	$118.00	Previous amount was an estimated amount that we allocated for each traveler based off rates provided by the hotel as a total. Following travel, we were able to more accurately account for the true cost spent on each accommodation (3 nights with check-in on Thursday, August 20 and check out Sunday, August 23 morning), which was $118 per night, per person with a total being $354 total per traveler. Thursday, August 20: $118 Friday, August 21: $118 Saturday, August 22: $118

CONGRESO PANAMERICANO
PANAMERICAN CONGRESS
CONGRESSO PAN-AMERICANO

MONTEVIDEO 2026

INVITATION

0000000011316 RECEIVED BY: SECRETARY OF THE SENATE Date: October 07, 2026

Dear Ms. Misty Rebik,

It is our honor to invite you to participate in the third annual Panamerican Congress, to be held in Montevideo, Uruguay, from August 21–23, 2026.

At a time when the nations of the Americas face shared challenges that transcend borders — including climate resilience, migration pressures, public security, economic opportunity, and democratic governance — the need for effective hemispheric coordination has never been greater.

The Panamerican Congress brings together legislators and public leaders from across North, Central, and South America and the Caribbean to exchange ideas, build trust, and advance practical cooperation grounded in democratic institutions, the rule of law, and respect for national sovereignty. Our aim is simple but urgent: to strengthen collaboration across the hemisphere in ways that improve the lives, stability, and security of our citizens.

The Congress has grown rapidly into a dynamic hemispheric forum. The inaugural gathering in Bogotá in 2024 convened legislators and public leaders from across the Americas to begin building a shared agenda and relationships of trust. The Mexico City Congress in 2025 expanded participation to more than 100 leaders from 12 countries, deepened policy collaboration, and strengthened network that continue to drive cross-border cooperation today.

The 2026 Montevideo Congress will build on this momentum and mark the most ambitious convening to date. With delegates and special guests expected from more than 14 countries, the meeting will emphasize turning dialogue into coordinated action, strengthening democratic resilience, expanding economic opportunity, and enhancing regional cooperation on shared priorities. New working sessions and cross-national policy exchanges are designed to produce practical collaboration that continues long after the Congress concludes.

Participation by political leaders from of the United States is especially vital in today's geopolitical environment. The United States plays a central role in hemispheric trade, security cooperation, democratic governance, and innovation. Constructive engagement by US legislators and politicians helps ensure that regional efforts are effective, inclusive, and grounded in shared democratic values. Your presence would signal a renewed commitment to partnership across the Americas and help strengthen the collaborative frameworks needed to address challenges that no nation can solve alone.

Uruguay offers an ideal setting for this work. Known for its strong democratic traditions, institutional stability, and commitment to human rights and social inclusion, Montevideo provides a welcoming environment for thoughtful dialogue and constructive engagement.

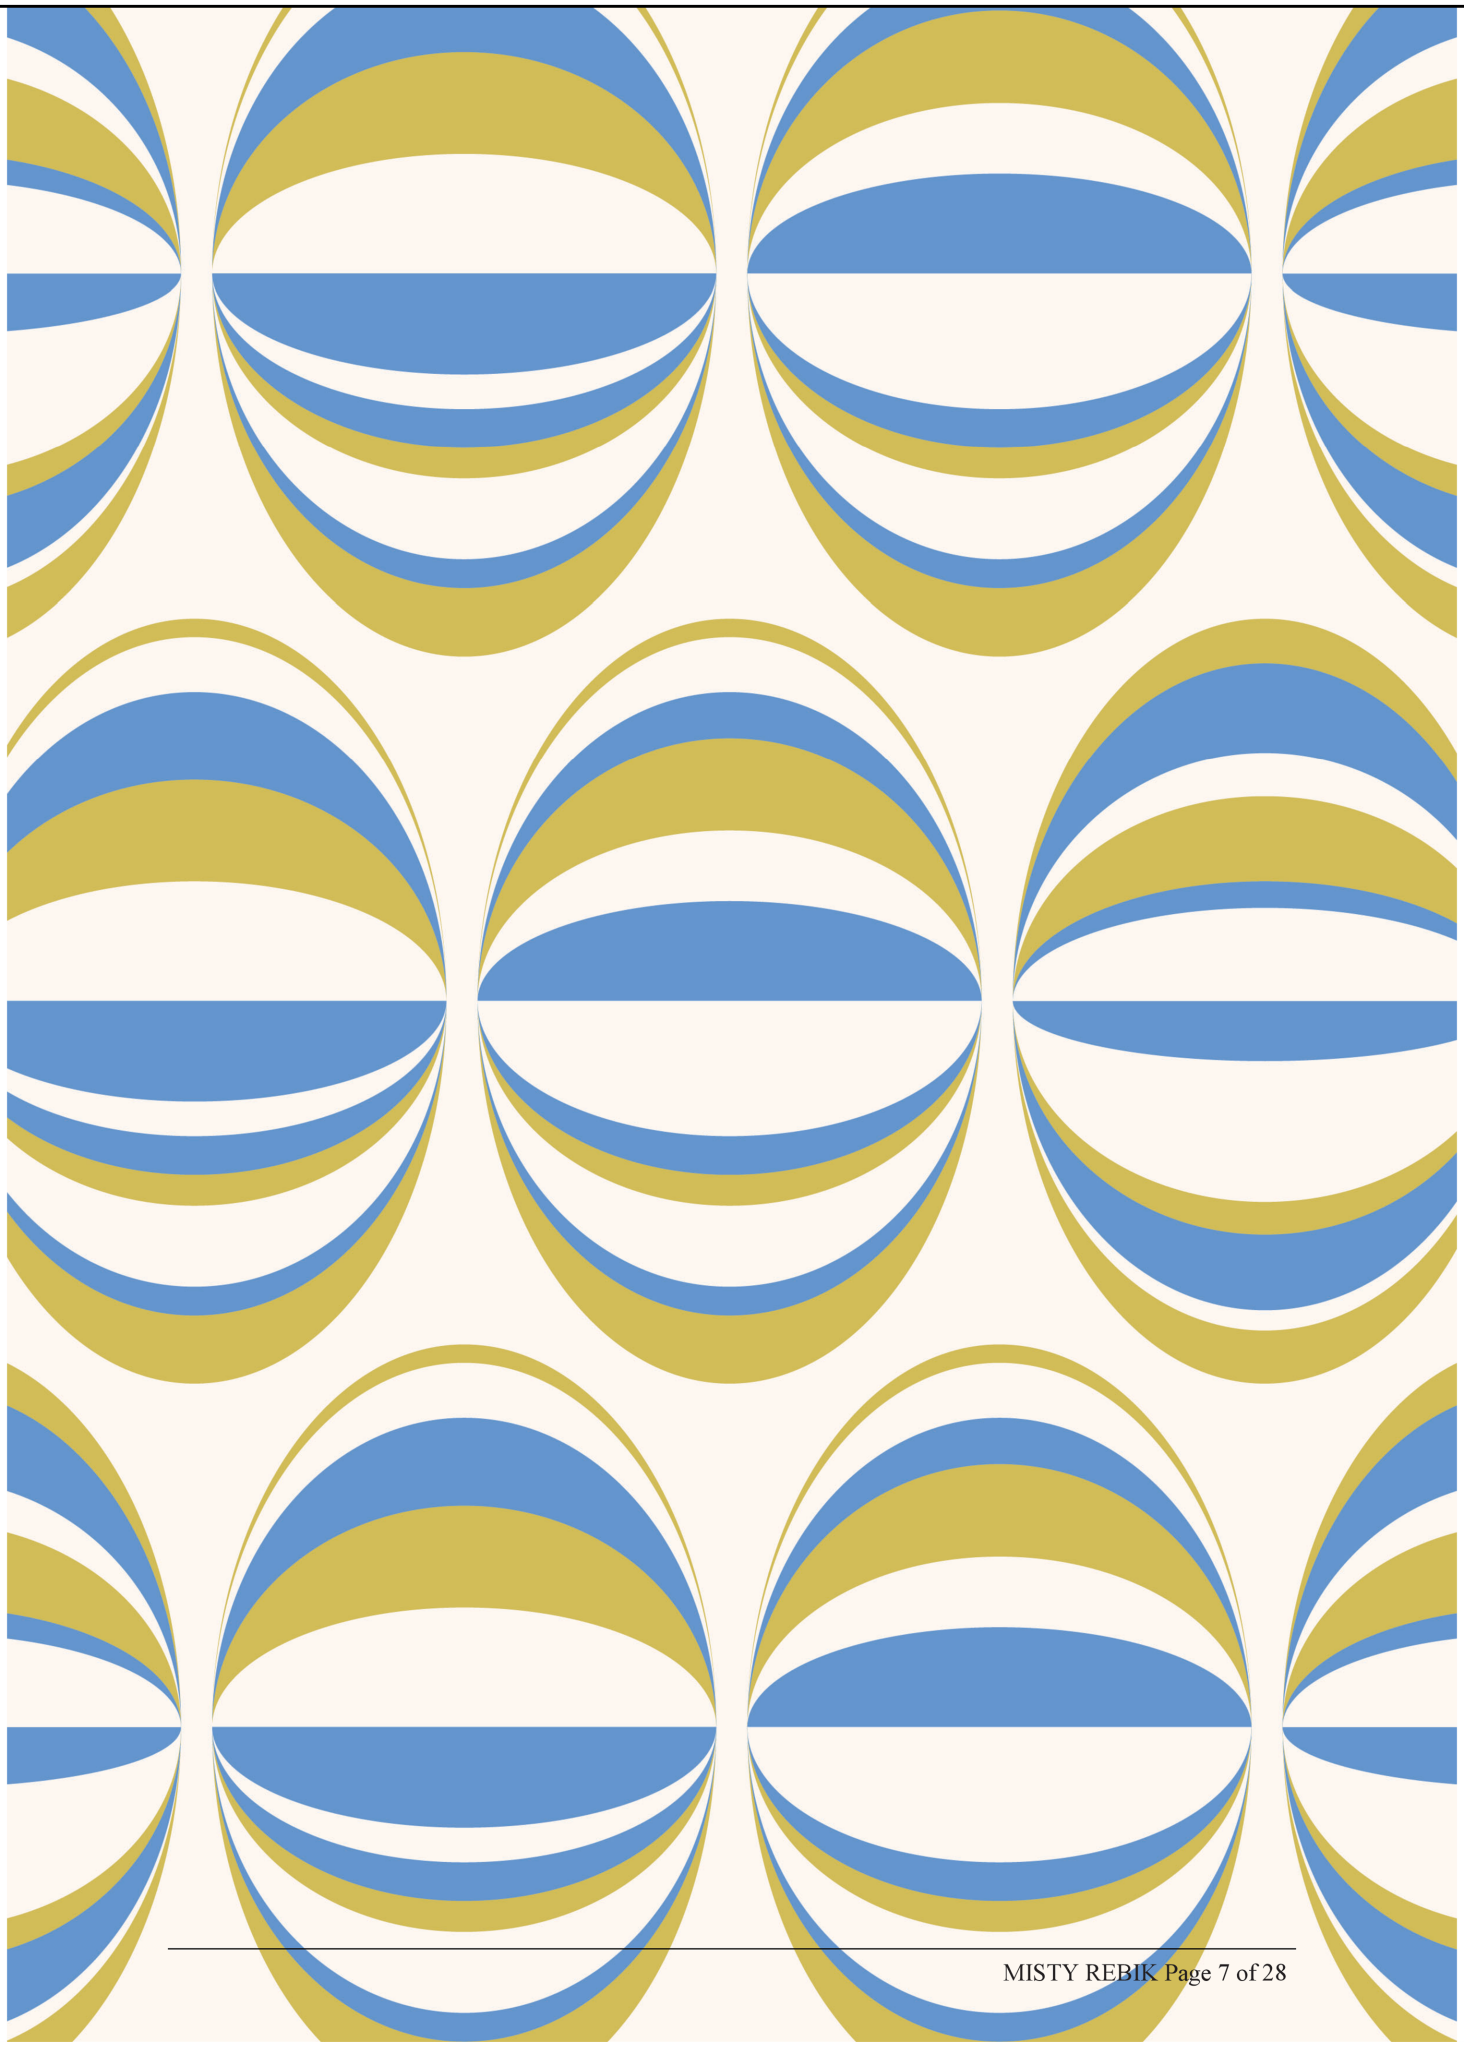

Your participation as a Special Guest to the Congress would contribute valuable insight and perspective to discussions with colleagues from across the hemisphere. Together, we aim to advance solutions that reinforce democratic resilience, expand opportunity, and strengthen cooperation among the peoples of the Americas.

If you are interested in joining us as a Special Guest at this high-level meeting, please confirm your attendance as soon as possible. If you have any questions regarding the call for participation or logistics, please contact Christian Pino, Operations Coordinator, at christian.pino@panamericancongress.org or via WhatsApp: +593 99 168 3596

We would be honored to welcome you to Montevideo as we work together toward a more secure, prosperous, and cooperative hemisphere.

With warm regards,

David Adler & Giorgio Jackson
Panamerican Congress Coordination Team

History of Congressional Travel

The Panamerican Exchange is a non-partisan, non-profit organization and is the sole sponsor of the Panamerican Congress. The 2026 Congress continues the work of the first Panamerican Congress (2024) that facilitates dialogue among leaders and legislators across the Americas and the Caribbean. Each year since the first Congress, we have sponsored congressional travel for members in both the House and the Senate, usually around 5-10 members and staff.

Educational Activities

The Panamerican Exchange's mission is to foster understanding and cooperation on key issues facing the Western Hemisphere. We do this primarily with sponsoring congressional travel to the annual congress but also host briefings on the region bringing together policy matter experts, in country/region civil society organizations, and other leaders.

Purpose and Details

Provide a brief description of the trip.

Members and staff will travel to Montevideo, Uruguay for the 2026 Congress, which will convene delegates from more than 14 countries, to discuss 4 themes. Parallel closed-door working sessions organized around the Congress's main themes: Peace and Multilateralism (Theme 1), Development (Theme 2), Digital Sovereignty (Theme 3), and Societal Well-being (Theme 4) will happen throughout the congress. Each session will include opening statements facilitated by moderators and provide space for legislators to share experiences, challenges, and strategies from their respective countries. Regional cultural events and various ceremonies, including a closing ceremony and discussion, and possible bilateral meetings among delegates, will round out the trip.

Explain how the purpose of the trip relates to your organization's mission.

The broader aims of the Panamerican Exchange involve bringing together leaders to discuss public policy, find common ground on global issues, and continue the success of the first congress. By convening regional parliamentarians annually, we support our mission of bringing together leaders and building lasting relationship where delegates are able to learn about emerging issues, policy solutions, and ways to engage with the region. Participation by Members of the United States Congress, and their staff, is especially vital, go. The United States plays a central role in hemispheric trade, security cooperation, democratic governance, innovation, and in other areas. Constructive engagement by U.S. legislators and staff helps ensure that regional efforts are effective, inclusive, and grounded in shared democratic values.

Representative Pramila Jayapal (WA) - As a senior U.S. legislator, the representative's participation is vital for addressing critical regional issues, including climate resilience, migration pressures, public security. Given her central role on the House Committee on Judiciary, Committee on Foreign Affairs, and House Budget Committee, the representative's engagement helps ensure a robust convening.

Representative Jesus "Chuy" Garcia (IL) - A veteran in U.S. -Latin American affairs and Deputy Whip of the Congressional Progressive Caucus, his attendance reinforces existing relationships with key regional partners. It will also support enhanced collaboration and facilitate further introductions to relevant U.S. stakeholders across areas such as climate, peace, trade, and democracy.

Representative Jonathan Jackson (IL) - As an emerging leader on foreign policy, particularly as it relates to indigenous and Afro-descent communities, the representative's participation and attendance provides an opportunity to deepen knowledge about the Hemisphere's challenges. It also serves as an opportunity to advance essential hemispheric discussions on shared challenges that transcend national borders.

Mr. Michael Darner, CPC Executive Director - As Executive Director of the Congressional Progressive Caucus, his attendance helps to maintain effective communication and relationships with key partners upon returning to the U.S. He will also facilitate introductions to relevant U.S. partners focused on peace, climate, and democracy initiatives.

Mr. Keane Bhatt, CPC Policy Director - As Policy Director of the Congressional Progressive Caucus, his participation supports ongoing communication and relationships with key partners following the Congress. He will also make introductions to U.S. partners engaged in peace, climate, and democracy-related work.

Ms. Deepa Patel, Chief of Staff - Office of Representative Jackson - As Chief of Staff to a Member on the House Foreign Affairs Committee and the Western Hemisphere Subcommittee, Ms. Patel's attendance is paramount in building/continuing relationships in the region and to connect with leaders and movements advancing democratic resilience, social equity, and community-driven governance.

Ms. Jennifer Chan, Legislative Director - Office of Representative Jayapal - Ms. Chan's participation in the Congress provides valuable opportunities for sharing insights and specialized knowledge among progressive leaders, which remains paramount to understanding and advancing common objectives. Furthermore, as the Legislative Director for a senior progressive member, her engagement and knowledge supports ongoing communications and relationships with key partners following the Congress.

Mr. Alex Sadler, Foreign Policy Advisor - Office of Senator Sanders - As foreign policy advisor to a progressive senator, Mr. Sadler's attendance provides valuable opportunities to build relationships in the region, and connect with other regional leaders on issues of economy, healthcare, and democracy. He will also be critical in maintaining effective communication and relationships with key partners upon returning to the U.S.

Mr. Sameer Jaywant, Policy Advisor - Office of Representative "Chuy" Garcia - Mr. Sameer's participation in the Congress provides valuable opportunities for sharing insights on topics related to democracy and justice.

Ms. Misty Rebik, Chief of Staff - Office of Senator Sanders - Ms. Rebik is the Chief of Staff participation in the Congress provides valuable opportunities for sharing insights on topics related to democracy, healthcare, movements, and economy. Her participation allows the building of relationships in the region and to connect with leaders and movements advancing democratic resilience, social equity, and community-driven governance.

FRIDAY AUGUST 21
07:00 – 08:00 Breakfast at Hotel Dazzler

08:15 – 08:35 Transfer from Hotel Dazzler to the Palacio Legislativo de Uruguay.

08:40 – 09:10 Opening Ceremony Press Conference
Venue: Palacio Legislativo de Uruguay. Av. de las Leyes.
https://maps.app.goo.gl/n9duqbQFHxAqoMae8
This press conference serves to publicly state the delegation's commitment to hemispheric dialogue. It provides an opportunity for US delegates to outline their fact-finding objectives and highlight the importance of building cross-border networks to address shared hemispheric challenges, such as strengthening democratic resilience and economic security.

09:15 – 10:45 Opening Ceremony
Venue: Palacio Legislativo de Uruguay. Salón de los Pasos Pérdidos.
An inaugural ceremony officiated by the President of Uruguay, Yamandú Orsi, marking the official opening of the Third Pan-American Congress, with speeches by Uruguayan leadership, international delegates, and special guests. The ceremony will highlight the 11:15 – 11:45 Coffee Break and Restroom Break

Coffee breaks will serve as additional informal spaces for US members to engage in bilateral discussions with counterparts from across the hemisphere.

11:45 – 13:15 Working Session #1
Venue: Annex building of the Legislative Palace (José Artigas).
Parallel closed-door working sessions organized around the Congress's main themes: Peace, Security, and Multilateralism; Sustainable Economic Development and Regional Integration; Digital Sovereignty and Artificial Intelligence; Well-being and Care for the Many. Each member pre-selects their theme track ahead of time to ensure a balanced distribution of participants by country and effective participation in each session.

Each session will be facilitated by a Panamerican staffer, who will provide opening remarks and guiding questions within each theme. The aim of the facilitator is to encourage legislators from various country delegations to share experiences, challenges, and strategies from their respective countries. Each track will report out their insights and conversation to the larger Congress on Day 3. Each working session will be organized in sequential stages, ensuring that each conversation becomes the foundation of the next, thereby avoiding the reopening of issues that have already been discussed. These closed-door discussions will allow for frank dialogue, fact-finding exchanges, and the development of shared understandings. Translation will be provided.

13:15 – 13:30 Transfer from the Annex building of the Legislative Palace for lunch.

13:30 – 14:40 Working Lunch
Venue: La Imprenta Restaurante. Cerrito 553. https:// maps.app.goo.gl/XiXgMKuypPWfYoKi8
The working lunch will provide an opportunity for US members to continue their bilateral discussions and broaden their networks across the delegations from the other participating countries. Possible discussion topics include, but are not limited to, the four themes of the Congress, regional updates from delegations, and other areas of mutual interest.

14:40 – 15:00 Transfer from working lunch to Hotel Dazzler to Teatro Solís.

12:00 – 13:45 Emerging Issues Workshops

Venue: Annex building of the Legislative Palace (José Artigas).
Parallel training workshops for delegates to learn from experts across three critical emerging issues — (1) the defense of democracy in the twenty-first century, brought to you by the Democracy Hub (D-Hub), (2) the new global economy in an age of geopolitical turbulence, brought to you by the Global Fund for a New Economy and the i3T think tank, and (3) the best practices to take cybersecurity seriously, brought to you by Argentina's renowned Center for Legal and Social Studies (CELS). These workshops will differ from working sessions, in that they will be less interactive and more lecture style conversation.

13:45 – 14:00 Transfer from the annex building of the Legislative Palace to Mercado del Puerto.

14:00 – 16:30 Working Lunch

Location: Mercado del Puerto. 11000, Montevideo.
https://maps.app.goo.gl/exJHWgYVPV9VCSft5
Mercado del Puerto provides the ideal intimate atmosphere for US members to continue their bilateral discussions and broaden their networks across the delegations from the other participating countries. Possible discussion topics include, but are not limited to, the four themes of the Congress, regional updates from delegations, emerging issue workshops follow ups, and other areas of mutual interest.

16:30 – 17:00 Transfer to Hotel Dazzler

17:00 – 19:45 Executive Time or Bilateral Meetings Among Delegates

Venue: Hotel Dazzler
We highly encourage delegates to utilize these blocks of Executive Time for substantive bilateral meetings. These periods offer a vital space for continuing in-depth discussions, cultivating personal connections, and exploring greater understanding beyond the structured working sessions. Panamerican staff are fully available to coordinate and facilitate these engagements to ensure all key priorities for US delegates are thoroughly addressed. We expected bilaterals topics to include, but are not limited to, the four themes of the Congress, regional updates from delegations, and other areas of mutual interest that are not discussed in the working sessions or emerging issues workshops.

19:45 – 20:00 Transfer from the hotel to Congress Reception

20:00 – 23:30 Congress Reception

Venue: Baar Fun Fun. Sede CAF, Ciudadela 1229, 11000.
https://maps.app.goo.gl/Je7DK5u6JqA8aDNA9
The Congress Reception will both provide dinner options to Congress delegates and a unique opportunity to dialogue with representatives of Uruguayan civil society who were not present in the closed-door deliberations. This event will strengthen personal bonds between delegates in a relaxed atmosphere, building the foundation for lasting dialogue and relationships beyond the formal sessions of the Congress. Possible discussion topics include, but are not limited to, the four themes of the Congress, regional updates from delegations, and other areas of mutual interest.

23:45 Transfer to Hotel Dazzler.

SUNDAY AUGUST 23

07:30 – 08:30 Breakfast at Hotel Dazzler and check-out for all delegates departing Sunday.

08:30 – 09:00 Transfer to the closing ceremony.

09:00 – 12:00 Closing Ceremony

Venue: Parlamento del MERCOSUR. Dr. Pablo de María 827.
https://maps.app.goo.gl/X9URz5GdVzUkVBw36.
During this final plenary meeting/Closing Ceremony, participating delegates and special guests will review the discussions and insights of the working sessions, and may adopt a formal resolution. All US Members and staff will exclusively participate as observers in the final plenary meeting, listening to the deliberations without offering commentary, conducting votes, or signing declarations. The final plenary meeting will also discuss next steps for the Congress and ways to encourage further dialogue and preserve relationships between annual meetings. Translation will be provided. Note: we are finalizing a list of speakers for the closing ceremony and will provide that once complete.

12:00 Transfer to Hotel Dazzler, executive time for final bilateral meetings, or delegates departure to the airport.
