RE: Milan Staffdel invite February 14-19, 2026

Invitation to ModSquad Action Senate Staff Delegation Trip to Milan

ModSquad Chiefs of Staff,

I am delighted to invite you to participate in our staff trip to Milan from February 14 to 19. This trip will offer another opportunity to engage with colleagues, exchange ideas, and work together to solve important policy issues.

At ModSquad Action, we are committed to encouraging elected officials to work across the aisle to develop common sense solutions to tough problems. This trip is designed to give you hands-on experience with pressing policy issues along with insight into how innovative ideas are developed, tested and put into practice, all to help inform and strengthen your work in the Senate.

Trip Highlights:

- Gain insights into key diplomatic issues and the importance of our allegiances in Europe and across the world;
- Explore innovations in how U.S.-based companies engage in the international context in the fields of technology and textiles; and
- Learn about key challenges and solutions as the United States prepares to host a series of high-profile international sporting events in the coming years, including security, transportation, and funding needs.

Travel and Logistics:
The program complies with the U.S. Senate Select Committee on Ethics' requirements for privately sponsored travel. ModSquad Action will cover lodging, roundtrip plane tickets (departing late February 14 and returning on February 19), ground transportation to all meetings, and all meals during official programming.

This invitation is limited and non-transferable, and we kindly request that you confirm your interest by responding to this email with RSVP by January 14. We will provide you with necessary paperwork for submission before the 30-day Senate Ethics deadline for your convenience. Please submit your paperwork to Ethics by January 14. If you have any questions, please contact Kate Leone (kate@modsquad-us.com), Jen Mueller (jen@benchmarkstrategies.com), or Sue Hothem (sue@modsquad-us.com).

We hope you can join us for this trip, and we look forward to hearing from you!

Sincerely,

Jen Mueller
