Attachments: 2026 Moab trip invite .pdf; Draft August 2026 Congressional Trip Itinerary .docx

Hi Mariajose,

I wanted to invite you to come to Utah this August to join the Southern Utah Wilderness Alliance for a trip into the area we are seeking to protect as wilderness through America's Red Rock Wilderness Act. The trip is happening August 16-19 with initial arrival into Grand Junction, CO then transportation to Moab is provided, along with flights, site-to-site transport, lodging, and food.

We have been building out an itinerary to see places like Labyrinth Canyon, Fisher Towers, and Arches National Park on the ground, discuss the importance of public lands to Utah's economy, meet with local officials and Tribal partners, and discuss what needs to be done to continue to protect these amazing places, especially with the attacks that have been seen since the change in administration.

The trip will consist of meetings, site visits to wilderness areas and proposed wilderness parcels, a small plane fly over of areas to get an aerial view of land management, an overnight on the Colorado River with a local river guide company to discuss wilderness and recreation (yes this includes camping), and opportunities to engage with other Senate and House Staffer along with SUWA's issue specialists and field staff.

The Southern Utah Wilderness Alliance is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization and this trip complies with all Senate and House ethical requirements. Please see the attached invitation and sample itinerary (subject to change).

Please RSVP no later than July 10th.

Spots on the trip are limited so please make sure to RSVP as soon as possible.

If you have any questions, don't hesitate to reach out. Hope to have you join us!

History of Congressional Travel

We have hosted this trip the past 2 years. This trip will follow a very similar itinerary with minor changes in locations and the key issues discussed. This trip is composed of congressional staffers from both the House and Senate that we bring to the desert in Southern Utah to give them on the ground conversations with local voices and see the issues happening on our public lands first hand.

Educational Activities

Our organization works both with public servants as well as the general public to inform and educate on happenings on our public lands. We bring volunteers out on the ground to learn and work alongside the BLM on enforcing management of wilderness areas, we host presentations across the nation to educate all types of folks on what is happening in Southern Utah and how they can get involved.

Purpose and Details

Provide a brief description of the trip.

The Southern Utah Wilderness Alliance brings congressional staff out to the public lands of Utah to give them on the ground knowledge of issues being discussed in current legislation. During this trip they will have the opportunity to talk to different stakeholders from the area to gain a better understanding of how decisions made through legislation or agency action have changed on the ground management of our public lands.

Explain how the purpose of the trip relates to your organization's mission.

The Southern Utah Wilderness Alliance through many avenues works on the protection of over 8 million acres of public lands in Utah from actions that could impact the cultural resources, scientific value, and ecological health of these areas until they are able to be permanently protected through congressionally designated wilderness classifications. Until these permanent protections are put in place every action that Congress and different agencies make can cause disruptions to these areas that would make them no longer qualified for the wilderness designation. This leaves over half a million cultural resource sites, dozens of species in need of climate refuge, future scientific discoveries and opportunities for nonmotorized recreation at risk. Bringing the folks involved in these decisions to the areas to gain a better understanding of the landscapes and happenings on the ground helps them to make more informed decisions.

Utah Wilderness August Trip - Hosted by SUWA

All times are in Mountain Time (MT) unless otherwise stated

Day 1 – August 16 – Sunday

5:00am ET – 10:05am MT
Depart National Airport (DCA) for Grand Junction Regional Airport (GJT)
American Airlines - Flight AA2007 - DCA->DFW
American Airlines - Flight AA6235 - DFW->GJT

10:30am – 12:30pm
Travel from Grand Junction Airport (GJT) to Moab, UT via vehicles (lunch enroute)

12:30pm – 2:00pm
Arrive to Gravity Haus Moab (hotel), check in

2:00pm – 2:15pm
Depart hotel for Kane Springs Road in vehicles.

2:15pm – 5:00pm
Tour Kane Springs Road areas: Discuss Moab Rim R.S.2477 claims, short hike to view Native American "Moon Flower" and "Birthing Panel" (Fremont and Ute peoples) petroglyphs and discuss the importance of protecting lands in Utah for the cultural resources that exist across the landscape and the support by the Navajo Nation, Hopi Tribal Council, and other Tribal partners in preserving lands for these resources. Visit Kane Springs Development and discuss the urban sprawl impacts on the local communities, recreation, and wilderness proposals. Discuss recreational and motorized use by hikers, bikers, OHV/ORV, and other users of the Amasa Back Trail. The goal for this portion of the trip is to connect the land preservation work with Tribal partners and Tribal nations to best message why protecting lands is important and show the threats that are on the ground today.

Speakers:
Neal Clark, SUWA Wildlands Director
Ray Bloxham, SUWA Wildlands Field Director

5:00pm – 5:15pm
Travel from Kane Springs Road area to Sand Flats Recreation Area/Juniper Campground in vehicles for dinner

5:15pm – 6:00pm
Dinner at Juniper Campground

6:00pm – 8:45pm
Visit Sand Flats Recreation Area to discuss off-road vehicle management/recreation. Moab has been a focal point of public land controversies, especially over the recent off-highway vehicle plan for BLM lands around Labyrinth Canyon. The town also represents the challenges of a tourism/recreation-based economy based on public land. Additionally, we will discuss the controversial decision by the Utah State Legislature to allow "Sides by Sides" or UTVs to operate legally on public roads in communities like Moab.

Speakers:
Neal Clark, SUWA Wildlands Director
Ray Bloxham, SUWA Wildlands Field Director
Jeremy Lynch, SUWA Stewardship Director

8:45pm – 9:00pm
Return to Gravity Haus Hotel in vehicles

9:00pm – End of Day 1

Day 2 – August 17 – Monday

6:00am – 6:30am
Depart Gravity Haus in vehicles for Canyonlands Regional Airport to meet with EcoFlight, the non-profit educational overflight organization.

There will be two flights as the plane is small, 3-4 participants at a time

Lauren Hainsworth (SUWA) and Travis Hammill (SUWA) will host on the ground and discuss the National Wilderness Coalition while the other crews are in the air.

Breakfast will be provided at the airport.

6:30am – 9:00am
Overflights over Labyrinth Canyon, a recently (2019) designated wilderness area on one side of the Green River. Discussions will include the current Bureau of Land Management Travel Management process and the recent issues that have come up between the federal government, state government, Utah Congressional Delegation, and local sentiment. The goal for this overflight is to see the boundaries of protected and unprotected lands, federal/state/private lands, and the interplay between management agencies, and what can be done to address these issues.

Flight Guide:
Neal Clark, SUWA Wildlands Director

9:00am – 12:00pm
After returning to Canyonlands Regional Airport, depart the airport in SUWA vehicle and drive along Highway 313 to view RS2477 claim conflicts, energy development, and recreation management issues. Stop at the Long Canyon viewpoint to discuss various land management (BLM, USFS, NPS, State Lands) as lands managed by each agency can be seen from this overlook. Drive back along the river road to view uranium tailings clean up, discuss Mining Law of 1972 and public liabilities and ecological threats. This goal of this portion of the trip is to show how complicated things can be when it comes to land management when dealing with multiple agencies and what can be done to address these issues.

Speakers:
Neal Clark, SUWA Wildlands Director
Ray Bloxham, SUWA Wildlands Field Director

12:00pm – 1:00pm
Stop at Dead Horse Point for boxed lunch and answer questions that may have come up during the morning's events.

1:00pm – 1:30pm
Travel back to Gravity Haus hotel in vehicle

1:30pm – 2:15pm
Executive time

2:15pm – 3:15pm
Travel from Gravity Haus to Hittle Bottom boat ramp in vehicles. Along the way, view and discuss land management regime (BLM management on left bank, Arches NP on the right bank, and the riverbed managed by the State of Utah) again, pointing to the complications of different missions, views, and management principles of adjacent management agencies. Discuss recreation issues that arise in seasonally visited areas such as Moab in Utah.

Speakers:
Neal Clark, SUWA Wildlands Director
Ray Bloxham, SUWA Wildlands Field Director
Travis Hammill, SUWA DC Director
Lauren Hainsworth, SUWA Legislative Advocate

3:15pm-3:30pm
Meet with the river guide company, Holiday Expeditions, and pack boats, go over safety equipment and procedures for time on the river.

3:30pm – 5:00pm
Float down the Colorado River towards Onion Creek Campground. While on water, discuss water issues surrounding the Colorado River Plateau, view Dome Plateau, Fisher Towers, Mary Jane Canyon proposed wilderness areas, discuss Wilderness Study Areas and how they are used to provide interim protections, and implications for future protection. The goal of being on the river is to view places not easily accessible that are proposed for wilderness designation. Additionally, we will discuss the principles of "wilderness" when it comes to the definitions provided in the Wilderness Act of 1964 and the Federal Lands Policy and Management Act of 1976, especially relating to the idea of "solitude".

Speakers:
Neal Clark, SUWA Wildlands Director
Scott Braden, SUWA Executive Director
Travis Hammill, SUWA DC Director
Lauren Hainsworth, SUWA Legislative Advocate

5:00pm – 6:00pm
Arrive at Onion Creek Campground. Dinner prepared by guides. Set up campsites.

6:00pm – 7:00pm
Dinner at Onion Creek Campground

7:00pm – 10:00pm
Hear from Tribal representatives to discuss the needs of Tribal communities surrounding conservation, wilderness, the endorsement of America's Red Rock Wilderness Act (ARRWA), and Bears Ears National Monument

Speakers:
Troy Honahnie, Consultant
Autumn Gillard, Coordinator for Grand Staircase-Escalante Inter-Tribal Coalition

10:00pm – return to tents, end of Day 2

Day 3 – August 18 – Tuesday

8:00am – 9:00am
Breakfast provided by guides, break camp, and pack rafts. Pack lunches to eat while on the river.

9:00am – 12:00pm
Launch back on to the river. Discussions will continue from the previous day's on-river and in-camp discussions. We will also be discussing the process by which Grand Staircase Escalante and Bears Ears National Monuments were created, SUWA's part in the process, the changes by the Trump Administration in 2017, the lawsuits in federal court filed by groups in support of the monuments to overturn the Trump Administration's decision, the re-establishment of the monuments by President Biden in 2021, the lawsuits that followed by the State of Utah and opposition groups, and the current status of the monuments and the lawsuits. We will also discuss the relationship SUWA has in working with Tribal partners in the state of Utah, especially in conjunction with advocacy on Bears Ears National Monument and the National Wilderness Coalition.

Speakers:
Neal Clark, SUWA Wildlands Director
Scott Braden, SUWA Executive Director
Amanda Newman, National Wilderness Coalition

12:00pm – 12:30pm
Arrive at Rocky Rapid/Big Sandy/Take Out Beach for lunch – take-out point is dependent upon water levels and flow speeds.

12:30pm – 1:00pm
Depart the river take-out point and travel back to Gravity Haus Moab in vehicles.

1:00pm-2:00pm
Executive time

2:00pm - 2:15pm
Travel from hotel to Arches National Park in SUWA vehicles

2:15pm - 5:30pm

BANQUET EVENT ORDER - ADDITIONAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

These Additional Terms and Conditions and the Banquet Event Order, each hereby made a part hereof (collectively, the "Agreement") are entered into by and between the Hotel set forth on your Banquet Event Order ("Hotel" or "us" or "we" or "our"), and the person or legal entity responsible for commissioning and payment of the Event, as specified on the Banquet Event Order ("Group" or "you" or "your"). For the entire term of your use and occupancy of the contracted function space within the Hotel premises during your Event, you agree to comply with all of the requirements set forth herein and as they may be amended by Hilton Worldwide, Inc. ("Hilton Worldwide") from time to time in Hilton Worldwide's sole discretion and posted on this website.

ADDITIONAL DEFINITIONS:

- "Event" refers to the meeting/function at the Hotel as detailed in the Banquet Event Order.
- "Gratuity" refers to a charge based on your Event's food and beverage total, plus any applicable state and/or local taxes, which will be added to your account and will be fully distributed to servers, and where applicable, bussers and/or bartenders assigned to the Event.
- "Service charge" refers to a charge based on your Event's food and beverage total, plus any applicable state and/or local taxes, which will be added to your account, and that is not a gratuity but rather is the property of the Hotel to cover discretionary and administrative costs of the Event.
- "Supplemental Surcharges" are charges added to your Master Account bill to pay for costs incurred by the Hotel in connection with additional equipment, administration, and staffing necessary for the Event. These surcharges will be solely retained by the Hotel and are not distributed to hourly or tipped employees. Examples include, but are not limited to, early sets, late end times, outdoor venues, resets, refreshes, cleaning and other services that require staffing above normal levels and/or services outside of the normal scope contracted and paid products and services.

OPTION DATE: The arrangements set forth on the Banquet Event Order will serve as the final arrangements for your Event, and are tentatively being held for you on a first option basis until the due date specified in the Banquet Event Order. We may release this first option with no notice required if you do not sign and return the Banquet Event Order to the Hotel by the due date. Should other business opportunities arise such that we are in a position to confirm immediately, you will be advised and given 72 hours, or until the end of your option period (whichever is shorter) to confirm this Agreement on a definite basis by returning a signed copy of the Banquet Event Order to us, or to enable alternate dates to be researched and offered for your use.

ASSIGNMENT OF FUNCTION SPACE: The function space assigned on the Banquet Event Order (if any) indicates the space that is tentatively being held and will be held on a definite basis upon signing of the Banquet Event Order by both parties. If for any reason the function space tentatively held is not available for your Event, you agree that we may substitute space of appropriate size and comparable quality for your Event. If you plan to print or publish the assigned space, please contact us first to confirm the room assignment.

GUARANTEE OF ANTICIPATED REVENUE: At least 7 days prior your Event, you must inform us of the exact number of people who will attend your Event by contacting your assigned Catering Manager by phone. If any changes to this number or any other Banquet Event Order details are made within 7 days prior to arrival, Client will be assessed a $250 Change Fee per change. We will not undertake to serve more than 3% above this guaranteed minimum. If the Event is held, but the Hotel does not realize the Total Minimum Anticipated Revenue from your Event, you agree to pay performance damages to the Hotel. The damages owed will be the amount necessary for the Hotel to receive no less than 100% of the Total Minimum Anticipated Revenue from your Event. You will be charged based on the Event guarantee that you give us or the Total Minimum Anticipated Revenue indicated at the time you signed this Agreement, whichever is greater.

DEPOSIT; PAYMENT TERMS: We require you to provide the deposit as indicated on the Banquet Event Order. Such deposit is fully refundable up to 14 calendar days in advance of your Event date, after which the deposit is non-refundable. At the time of contracting, you must also provide a valid credit card (unless you have established sufficient credit facilities with Hilton Worldwide or Hotel). All charges or amounts owed by you will be charged to that initial credit card unless you make acceptable alternative payment arrangements (cash, certified check, or other credit card(s)) directly with us prior to the time that the amount becomes due. Your initial credit card will only be charged in the following instances: 1) all estimated Event charges minus the prepaid deposit will be charged 24 hours before the start of your Event; 2) for any additional charges you incur during your Event; and 3) if cancellation damages are assessed. If you have established sufficient credit facilities with Hilton Worldwide or Hotel, payment of all Event charges (other than the deposit) will be due within fourteen (14) days after receipt of the final bill. Undisputed invoiced charges 30 days past due will be considered delinquent and may be charged interest at a rate of 1.5% per month, or the maximum amount allowed by law, whichever is less. In addition to any other legal rights and remedies available to us under applicable laws, we may cancel your Event and the Agreement without liability if advance payments or deposits are not paid on a timely basis.

FULL CANCELLATION: You may cancel this Agreement only by giving written notice to us. In the event of a cancellation, our actual damages would be difficult to determine. Therefore, at the same time you send us your written notice of cancellation, you also agree to pay us, as liquidated damages and not a penalty, the following cancellation fee:

- Cancellation notice received by Hotel anytime between the date of signing of the Banquet Event Order and eight (8) days in advance of the Event: see the applicable cancellation fee that is listed in the Banquet Event Order

- As products and services must be purchased and scheduled in advance, cancellation notices received by Hotel seven (7) days or less in advance of the Event will incur a cancellation fee equal to 100% of the charges (including labor, gratuities, service charges, rentals and applicable taxes) for the final guarantee or contracted number of guests, whichever is higher.

OVERTIME: You agree to begin your Event promptly at the scheduled start time and to have your guests, invitees and other persons vacate the designated function space at the agreed upon end time. You must reimburse us for any overtime wage payments or other expenses incurred by us because of your failure to comply with these requirements.

PRICE INCREASES: There may be increases in prices due to unforeseen changes in market conditions at the time of your Event. We will communicate these increases to you in advance. We will require written confirmation that you agree to pay these increased prices, or at our option we may make reasonable substitutions in menus and you agree to accept such substitutions

SET UP CHARGES: Should extensive meeting room set-ups or elaborate staging be required, there will be a set-up charge to cover Hotel costs and additional labor. If equipment is necessary that exceeds Hotel's inventory, then you agree to pay for the cost of renting this additional equipment.

ADDITIONAL SPEND: You agree to pay the Hotel for any food, beverages and other services not expressly set out in the Banquet Event Order but made available on your request during the Event. On or before the arrival date, you will confirm to us in writing the names of those persons who you have authorized to sanction additional spend at the Event over and above the contracted amounts. All our records for additional spend (meeting room rental, audio/visual equipment, flipcharts, F&B functions and other incidentals) will be presented to one of your authorized signatories to be checked and signed on a daily basis.

OUTSIDE FOOD AND BEVERAGE: Due to applicable law, you may not bring alcoholic beverages into the Hotel for your Event. You must obtain our prior approval before you bring any food or non-alcoholic beverages from outside sources into our Hotel. Service fees will apply to any outside food or beverage served in our function space, regardless whether Hotel labor is required.

DELIVERIES: Arrangements for delivery of packages should be made through your designated Catering Manager. Receiving, handling and shipping charges may apply. No packages will be accepted by us that require us to pay shipping costs. Deliveries will only be accepted within 48 hours prior to your arrival date, unless otherwise agreed by us in advance. All deliveries must be correctly labeled as per our guidelines. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, we shall not be responsible for any damage to or loss of your packages.

DISPLAYS AND DECORATIONS; YOUR PROPERTY: You may, at your option, purchase insurance to cover your personal property, including decorations, special objects and other property. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we are not responsible for any loss or damage to property belonging to you or your attendees and do not maintain insurance covering it. All displays and/or decorations will be subject to our prior written approval and we reserve the right to contract and charge you for Hotel staff to provide the labor for any installations or removals of such. Hotel can advise you of such potential charges upon request.

CONDUCT OF EVENT: To the fullest extent permitted by law, you assume full responsibility for any damage done to our premises during your Event but only to the extent such damage is caused by you, your employees, guests, agents, or your contractors, including but not limited to any damage done resulting from the installation, placement, and removal of your displays, equipment, exhibits, or other items. For purposes of clarity, Group shall not be responsible for damage to guest sleeping rooms or public spaces of the Hotel not occupied by Group; in those instances, Hotel shall seek payment for damage from the responsible guest(s). You also agree that your Event will not create any unreasonable disturbance to other guests or meetings, such as excessive noise, smoke or fog machines, dry ice, confetti cannons, candles, incense, or any activity that generates offensive smells. Hotel reserves the right to end your Event immediately if you do not comply with Hotel's request to reduce or eliminate any such disturbance, in which case you will remain responsible for payment of all charges related to your Event and no refunds will be issued by Hotel.

COMPLIANCE WITH LAWS: Each party agrees to comply with all applicable laws and regulations related to the event that is the subject of this Agreement, including without limitation, health and safety codes, anti-terrorism, anti-corruption, anti-money laundering laws and regulations, and fire regulations. Each party agrees to cooperate with the other party and any relevant government authority to ensure compliance with such applicable laws and regulations. Group expressly acknowledges and agrees that Hotel's ability to perform under this Agreement is subject to Hotel's compliance with all applicable laws. In addition to any other legal rights and remedies available to Hotel under applicable laws, Hotel may cancel the Event and this Agreement without liability to anyone if Hotel reasonably believes it is necessary to do so in order for Hotel to comply with Hotel's obligations under all applicable laws or regulations.

GOVERNING LAW: The Agreement will be governed by and interpreted pursuant to the laws of the state or province (as applicable) in which the Hotel is located, excluding any laws regarding the choice or conflict of laws.

DISPUTES INVOLVING CREDIT CARD PAYMENTS: As a condition of Hotel agreeing to accept your credit card as an approved form of payment for all Master Account charges, you agree that any dispute that you may raise with respect to any Master Account charges must be addressed directly between you and us and to work in good faith to resolve any such disputed invoices in a timely manner. Any dispute that cannot be timely resolved to the mutual satisfaction of the parties shall be resolved in accordance with the dispute resolution provisions as contained in this Agreement.

AMENDMENTS; ENTIRE AGREEMENT: If you make changes to the Banquet Event Order, the changes may be accepted or rejected by the Hotel in our sole discretion. The Banquet Event Order, together with these Additional Terms and Conditions, upon signature by both parties on the Banquet Event Order, constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and may not be amended or changed unless done so in writing and signed by the parties; provided, however, that your final guarantee of attendance may be made by phone.

Cancellation Policy

Full payment is due 90 days prior to the trip. Cancellations made outside of 90 days from the day of the trip are refundable less a $200 service charge per person. Cancellations within 90 days of the trip are non refundable. All policies will be strictly enforced and we strongly recommend trip cancellation insurance. Cancellation of a trip is very unlikely, but we reserve the right to cancel any trip due to river or weather conditions or the lack of sufficient reservations. A full refund will be made if such is the case.

Charter Trips: must meet the minimum number of seats needed to charter, with a $400 per person deposit paid within 14 days of holding the trip. Full payment is due 90 days prior to the trip. Both of these payments are non-refundable. If the charter minimum is not met, regular cancellation policies apply.

Cancellation & Evacuation Insurance by Travel Guard: We strongly encourage you to purchase trip cancellation insurance. This policy from Travel Guard (3rd party entity) covers all illnesses including Covid. Please understand our cancellation policies are firm. There are no refunds or credits given within 90 days of your trip. To cover pre-existing conditions, purchase the insurance policy within 7 days of placing your deposit.
