Were there any changes to the pre-approved itinerary?

● Yes ○ No

Explanation: August 23rd: The staffers were at the Prayer Breakfast from 9:30 to 11:30am. Staffers then meet with the Ministry of Defense of Ukraine at 12pm instead of on August 26th. They then had lunch at Veterano Pizza before returning to the hotel to check in, receive their security briefings from our team and from the US Embassy RSO, and have a break and tour the church and memorial across the street. They were additionally joined at dinner by Tymofii Brik, Rector of the Kyiv School of Economics and Olga Slyvyvnska, Dmytro Krukovets, Pavlo Shkurenko, and Vlada Grudova of the KSE Institute. Alexandra and Yurii could not join. August 24th: At the church and memorial in Bucha, the staffers were joined by Father Andriy Galavin and Mykhailyna Skoryk-Shkarivska, Former Deputy Mayor of Bucha and Founder of the Institute for Sustainable Community Development, to learn about Bucha. Dinner was at Selyam instead of Etre Sofie and Roman Vybranovskyy, co-founder of the Ukraine Facility Platform and Peter Erban, Principal Advisor at the International Foundation for Electoral Systems, joined. Staffers had tea with Jose Andres, founder of World Central Kitchen, and Mark Savchuk, member of the Armed Forces of Ukraine, at the InterContinental Kyiv hotel after dinner. August 25th: Staffers met with the Office of the President of Ukraine at 11am instead of on August 26th. They did not visit the Museum of Folk Architecture and Life of Ukraine as a result. Lunch was at Lviv Croissants and Sevgil Musaeiva could not join. The Office of Defense Intelligence of Ukraine could no longer meet, and staffers instead toured Independence Square as opposed to on the 23d. Staffers did not meet with the Office of the Prime Minister of Ukraine. The meeting with the Air Defense Coordination Center took place at 8pm as opposed to on August 24th. August 26th: Staffers had a breakfast meeting with the US Embassy at the Hilton Hotel Kyiv as opposed to lunch. They then toured the Lukianivka area and the damaged McDonalds. Mayor Klitschko could no longer meet. Instead, staffers met with senior representatives of Naftogaz. Lunch was at Glek for ease of location. The staffers then met with the Security Service of Ukraine. The Ministry of Foreign Affairs meeting was moved to 12:30pm. Lana Zerkal, Iryna Mudra and Tetyana Prokopchuk could not meet. Peter Dickinson joined for dinner at O'Panas, as opposed lunch on the 25th. Brian Mefford with the Atlantic Council also met for dinner. August 27th: The group met with the Ministry of Defense of Poland at 10am, the meeting with Pawel Kowal and the Sejm was thus changed to 2pm, and iSANS joined for a working lunch at the Atlantic Council Warsaw Office while staffers no longer met with Atlantic Council Europe Center fellows for time. Staffers met Ms. Tsikhanouskaya and her team at 4:45pm at the Bristol.

Were there any additional changes to the pre-approved trip?

Explanation: There were no additional changes to the pre-approved trip.

Atlantic Council

Abigail Kane
National Security Advisor
Office of Senator Jeanne Shaheen

July 13, 2026

Dear Abigail,

On behalf of the Atlantic Council, it is my pleasure to invite you to join a staff delegation to Kyiv, Ukraine and Warsaw, Poland led by the Council's Eurasia Center. The trip will take place between August 21 and August 28, 2026.

Since its founding, the Atlantic Council's Eurasia Center has been a key resource on issues relating to Ukraine. The Eurasia Congressional Fellowship program connects a group of congressional staff members from the US House and Senate with leading experts to learn about Ukraine and the region. A crucial part of the program is this study trip to Ukraine, where staffers can learn more about the impact of Russia's war on Ukraine from the Ukrainian people and meet with Ukraine's leaders to better understand the need for American support. This staff delegation will take congressional staffers to Kyiv, where they will meet with senior representatives from the Ukrainian government, Ukrainian civil society, global NGOs, and the private sector.

The Eurasia Center has experience organizing successful travel to and from Kyiv on multiple occasions since February of 2022, including congressional staff trips to Kyiv, Ukraine in August 2024 and 2025, and will take utmost care to monitor the security situation and plan accordingly. The delegation will travel via Poland to take the train into Ukraine.

We hope that you can join this timely trip. Should you have any questions or require any additional information, please do not hesitate to contact me, or my colleague Shelby Magid (smagid@atlanticcouncil.org).

Best,

Ambassador John Herbst
Senior Director, Eurasia Center
Atlantic Council
