RE: NYC Staffdel invite January 22-23, 2026

Invitation to ModSquad Action Senate Staff Delegation Trip to New York City

ModSquad Legislative Directors and Communication Directors,

I am delighted to invite you to participate in our rescheduled staff trip to New York City from January 22-23. This trip will offer another opportunity to engage with colleagues, exchange ideas, and work together to solve important policy issues.

At ModSquad Action, we are committed to encouraging elected officials to work across the aisle to develop common sense solutions to tough problems. This trip is designed to give you hands-on experience with pressing policy issues along with insight into how innovative ideas are developed, tested and put into practice, all to help inform and strengthen your work in the Senate.

Trip Highlights:

- Gain hands on experience with innovation in the financial capital of the world, New York City;
- Explore innovations in media to inform communications and policy on Capitol Hill; and
- Learn about the messaging challenges and opportunities facing various organizations and companies navigating the DC landscape.

Travel and Logistics:
The program complies with the U.S. Senate Select Committee on Ethics' requirements for privately sponsored travel. ModSquad Action will cover lodging, roundtrip plane or train tickets (departing early January 22 and returning late on January 23), ground transportation to all meetings, and all meals during official programming.

This invitation is limited and non-transferable, and we kindly request that you confirm your interest by responding to this email with RSVP by December 15. We will provide you with necessary paperwork for submission before the 30-day Senate Ethics deadline for your convenience. Please submit your paperwork to Ethics by December 22. If you have any questions, please contact Kate Leone (kate@modsquad-us.com), Jen Mueller (jen@benchmarkstrategies.com), or Sue Hothem (sue@modsquad-us.com).

We hope you can join us for this trip, and we look forward to hearing from you!

Sincerely,
Jen Mueller

Stablecoins are emerging as a powerful new financial rail, enabling instant, low-cost, and globally accessible payments while laying the groundwork for on-chain commerce and tokenized capital markets. The presentation will explore the major use cases driving this growth—from cross-border payments and corporate treasury to digital marketplaces—and explain why financial institutions are increasingly embracing stablecoins as a transformative technology. With rising customer demand, clearer regulatory frameworks, and the rapid expansion of tokenization, banks and fintechs now see stablecoins not as a niche crypto tool but as an essential component of modern financial infrastructure.
