ATTACHMENT 1 – CHANGES FROM APPROVED PRE-TRAVEL

Note: Material changes to a trip that occur after the Committee has issued an approval letter may invalidate the Committee's approval. Please contact the Committee with any questions regarding changes to an approved trip.

Were there any changes to the pre-approved travel expenses? (Transportation, Meals, Lodging, Other)?

● Yes ○ No

Expense Change	Revised Amount	Explanation
Transportation	$1,938.00	We were able to reduce costs by relying on chartered busses for regional transfers rather than regional flights.
Lodging	$781.00	We were able to slightly reduce costs for one night of hotels, but this expense item remained largely on budget.
Meals	$459.00	Our meal expenses remained on budget.

Were there any changes to the pre-approved itinerary?

● Yes ○ No

Explanation: Jonathan Misk returned from Tirana on Monday, September 14 (instead of Saturday, September 12 with the other travelers). This did not affect his total transportation costs. His return flight was: September 14 TIA - MUC on United 9548, 11:50 a.m. - 1:40 p.m. MUC - IAD on United 8785, 4:20 p.m. - 7:25 p.m. For all travelers, hours of programming per day were the same or longer, however a few meeting participants or meeting orders changed from the indicative itinerary. Final itinerary here: Sunday, September 6 – Departure 5:45 p.m. – 8:10 a.m. +1 Delegation flies Washington IAD – Vienna VIE on Austrian airlines OS 42 Monday, September 7 – Belgrade 9:20 a.m. – 10:25 a.m. Delegation flies Vienna VIE – Belgrade BEG on Austrian airlines OS 721 10:45 a.m. – 11:30 a.m. Transfer to Belgrade city center and check in to hotel Location: Belgrade Hilton Hotel Address: Kralja Milana 35, Belgrade, 11000, Serbia 12:30 p.m. – 2:30 p.m. Lunch with Belgrade political scientists Location: Belgrade Hilton Hotel Address: Kralja Milana 35, Belgrade, 11000, Serbia This meeting will pair a leading Serbian political sociologist with a veteran former Serbian government foreign policy advisor and transatlantic think tank leader, giving staffers both a grounded academic read on civil society and public opinion and a seasoned, long-view perspective on Serbia's democratic trajectory and its place in the broader European order. - Dr. Gazela Pudar Draško, Director at the Institute for Philosophy and Social Theory, University of Belgrade - Stefan Jovanović, Student representative, Faculty of Political Science, Studenti u blokadi - Ivan Vejvoda, Senior Researcher, Austrian Institute for International Affairs 3:00 p.m. – 3:45 p.m. Private meeting Branko Milutinović, CEO, Nordeus Branko Milutinović co-founded Nordeus in 2010, growing it from a small Belgrade startup into a globally recognized mobile gaming company. As a leading voice in Serbia's tech ecosystem and a board member of the Digital Serbia Initiative, Milutinović offers staffers a firsthand look at Serbia's homegrown tech and innovation economy, an important counterpoint to the region's usual security- and geopolitics-heavy narrative. His experience building a globally competitive company out of Belgrade and now operating as part of a major US-based parent company, speaks directly to opportunities and challenges facing Serbia's next generation of digital talent. 4:00 p.m. – 5:00 p.m. Private meeting H.E. Andreas von Beckerath, Ambassador of the European Union to Serbia Andreas von Beckerath, a career diplomat who previously served as Ambassador to Ukraine, took up his post as EU Ambassador to Serbia in August 2025. He offers staffers a candid, on-the-ground read of where Serbia's political crisis and reform pressures stand relative to Brussels' benchmarks. 5:15 p.m. – 6:15 p.m. Private meeting Alex Kostic, President, MKGroup Alex Kostić leads MK Group, Serbia's largest privately-owned conglomerate, spanning agriculture, banking, energy, and real estate, and also chairs the board of AIK Bank following its regional expansion into Slovenia and Croatia. He offers staffers a window into Serbian big business's perspective on the investment climate, EU market integration, and the private sector's stake in the country's political and economic trajectory. 6:30 p.m. – 8:45 p.m. Welcome dinner and trip orientation with civil society briefing Location: Madera Address: Bulevar kralja Aleksandra 43, Beograd 11000, Serbia Meeting with representatives from Civil Society in Serbia will offer the staffers a unique, on-the-ground perspective of the realities of living in Serbia's political landscape, particularly given the significant recent protests across the country. Srđan Majstorović, Chairman of the Governing Board, European Policy Centre Igor Novaković, Senior

Associate, International and Security Affairs Centre – ISAC Fund¯ Dr Marko Savković, Senior Advisor, International and Security Affairs Centre – ISAC Fund¯ Bojana Selaković, Coordinator, National Convention on the European Union¯ Ivan Vujacic, President of the Forum for International Relations, European Movement in Serbia¯ Dimitrije Milic, Program Director and Founder, Novi Treci Put Overnight Belgrade, Serbia Location: Belgrade Hilton Hotel Address: Kralja Milana 35, Belgrade, 11000, Serbia Tuesday, September 8 – Belgrade, Skopje 7:45 a.m. – 8:45 a.m. Breakfast with CRTA experts Location: Madera Address: Bulevar kralja Aleksandra 43, Beograd 11000, Serbia The Center for Research, Transparency and Accountability (CRTA), is a Serbian non-partisan civil society organization focused on pushing for the development of a robust democratic culture through civic activism. Notably the CRTA has observed elections in Serbia on both the local and national level. Meeting with representative with the CRTA would give staffers insights into efforts to create civic engagement in Serbia as well as allow staffers to better understand the conduct of elections in the country.¯ Raša Nedeljkov, Program Director, CRTA¯ Vukosava Crnjanski, Founder and Director, CRTA 9:15 a.m. – 10:15 a.m. Private meeting - H.E. Marko Đurić, Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia Marko Đurić is the Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia. This is his second time serving in this position. As foreign minister, Đurić has an important perspective on the state of Serbia's foreign policy. He will help convey this perspective to staffers and help them understand where the policy priorities of Serbia and United States overlap. This meeting will be particularly interesting given the understanding the Minister has of the Washington landscape given his previous role as Ambassador of Serbia to the United States. 10:30 a.m. – 11:30 a.m. Private meeting - H.E. Ana Brnabić, President of the National Assembly of the Republic of Serbia Ana Brnabić is the President of the National Assembly of the Republic of Serbia, a position she has held since March 2024, having previously served as Prime Minister of Serbia from 2017 to 2024. As the head of Serbia's parliament and a former head of government, Brnabić offers staffers a unique perspective spanning both the executive and legislative dimensions of Serbian politics, including how the country's ongoing political crisis and protest movement are shaping the parliamentary agenda and EU accession reforms. 12:00 p.m. – 5:00 p.m. Hotel check out and drive Belgrade - Skopje 2:00 p.m. – 3:00 p.m. North Macedonia expert briefing This briefing will provide the fellows with a better understanding of the current political dynamics shaping North Macedonia, preparing them for upcoming meetings. For a young democracy whose statehood and national identity have been repeatedly contested by its neighbors, Independence Day functions as a barometer of the country's resilience and its citizens' continued commitment to the Euro-Atlantic integration process. Direct engagement with Macedonian officials and civil society on the ground offers the Staff Delegation first-hand insight of this significant for this Western Balkan country and NATO Ally.¯ Nikola Dimitrov, President and Co-founder of the Balkan Center for Constructive Policies Overnight Skopje, North Macedonia Location: Skopje Marriott Hotel Address: Plostad Makedonija 7, 1000 Skopje, North Macedonia Wednesday, September 9 – Skopje, Pristina 8:15 a.m. – 8:45 a.m. Breakfast meeting - Nicole Varnes, Charge d'Affaires, U.S. Embassy North Macedonia Nicole Varnes is currently serving as the Chargés d'affaires at the US Embassy in Skopje, North Macedonia. She is currently the highest-ranking US official at US Embassy Skopje, having previously served as the Deputy Chief of Mission since August 2024. Meeting with Ms. Varnes will provide high-level perspective into the U.S.'s current policy priorities and engagement in North Macedonia. 9:15 a.m. – 10:00 a.m. Private meeting - Admir Shabani, Deputy Minister of Defense of the Republic of North Macedonia Vlado Misajlovski has served as North Macedonia's Minister of Defense since June 2024, overseeing the country's contributions to NATO's eastern flank deterrence efforts and its participation in Alliance and EU peacekeeping missions. As a senior defense official from one of the region's newest NATO members, he offers staffers a firsthand view of North Macedonia's security priorities, its role in regional stability, and the practical challenges and opportunities of Alliance burden-sharing on the Balkans' front line. 10:15 a.m. – 11:15 a.m. Private meeting - H.E. Timčo Mucunski, Minister of Foreign Affairs and Foreign Trade of the Republic of North Macedonia Timčo Mucunski is the Minister of Foreign Affairs and

Foreign Trade of the Republic of North Macedonia. Mucunski has a valuable perspective on North Macedonia's foreign policy goals, specifically about strategic and economic cooperation with the United States and North Macedonia's 2026 bilateral trade agreement with Washington. This meeting can also provide insights into North Macedonia's role as a security partner to the US in the Western Balkans. 11:30 a.m. – 12:00 p.m. Private meeting - H.E. Michalis Rokas, Ambassador of the European Union to the Republic of North Macedonia A career EU diplomat with prior postings in Malaysia and New Zealand, Rokas gives staffers a candid read on where North Macedonia's constitutional reform standoff and accession negotiations actually stand. 12:00 p.m. – 1:30 p.m. Hotel check-out and drive Skopje – Pristina 1:30 p.m. – 2:45 p.m. Briefing over lunch with Civil Society Representatives Location: Hotel Sirius Address: Agim Ramadani, Pristina 10000 This lunch brings together a cross-section of Kosovo's civil society, including Kosovo Albanian and Kosovo Serb voices alongside other independent experts, giving staffers a multi-perspective view of on-the-ground dynamics, media freedom, and inter-ethnic relations rather than a single-sided account. With this range of viewpoints at the table, staffers can pressure-test assumptions and come away with a fuller, more balanced picture of Kosovo's political and social landscape than any one meeting could provide. - Agon Maliqi, Nonresident Senior Fellow, Europe Center, Atlantic Council - Lura Limani, Team leader – EU integration and regional cooperation program, Open Society Foundations - Tatjana Lazarević, Editor-in-Chief, KoSSev - Adriatik Kelmendi, Research Fellow, Klan Kosova - Milica Radovanović, Project Manager, New Social Initiative 3:00 p.m. – 3:40 p.m. Private meeting~ Ramush Haradinaj, Founder, Alliance for the Future of Kosovo (AAK) Ramush Haradinaj is the founder of the Alliance for the Future of Kosovo and served twice as Kosovo's Prime Minister, most recently from 2017 to 2020. Though he stepped down as AAK leader in May 2026, Haradinaj remains an influential political figure and possible presidential contender, and his perspective on Kosovo's political landscape and party dynamics offers staffers a useful complement to the other political positions shared in the day's meetings. 4:00 p.m. – 4:40 p.m. Private meeting~ Lumir Abdixhiku, Leader, Democratic League Lumir Abdixhiku is the leader of the Democratic League, which is a prominent opposition political party in Kosovo. Atlantic Council

Daniel Gottfried
Professional Staff Member
Senate Foreign Relations Committee

July 16, 2026

Dear Daniel,

On behalf of the Atlantic Council, it is my pleasure to invite you to join a staff delegation to Serbia, North Macedonia, Kosovo, and Albania led by the Council's Europe Center. The study tour will take place from September 6 – 12, 2026.

The Atlantic Council's Europe Center is home to the Balkans Forward Initiative, which is a unique, coordinated effort to foster a democratic, secure, and prosperous Western Balkans firmly integrated into the transatlantic community. Our work seeks to sustain US engagement in the region, promote effective US-European cooperation on issues related to the Western Balkans, foster dialogue among key regional actors, and cultivate the next generation of policy makers and subject matter experts familiar with the region and its issues.

This congressional staff delegation will travel to the Western Balkans where they will meet with senior government officials, legislators and staff, civil society, and private sector leaders. Meetings will focus on US policy, regional security, economic development, crime and corruption, and the reform agenda in the region. The trip's mission is to build greater awareness of the opportunities and challenges facing the Western Balkans and support informed US policy deliberation about the region.

We hope that you can join this study tour. Should you have any questions or require any additional information, please do not hesitate to contact me, or Associate Director of the Europe Center, Lisa Homel (lhomel@atlanticcouncil.org).

Best,

Jörn Fleck
Senior Director, Europe Center

Purpose and Details

Provide a brief description of the trip.

The Atlantic Council's Europe Center planned a trip for staffers based on the Center's focus on the Western Balkans. The locations of Serbia, North Macedonia, Kosovo, and Albania were picked to educate staffers on the different dynamics across a large swath of the Western Balkans region. Visiting these locations will provide opportunities to understand each country's relationship with the United States and the priorities and dynamics of each country within the region, in the transatlantic relationship, and vis-à-vis their efforts to join the European Union.

Explain how the purpose of the trip relates to your organization's mission.

The Atlantic Council promotes leadership and engagement in international affairs. The Atlantic Council's Europe Center aims to enhance transatlantic cooperation and generate awareness about Europe, including the Western Balkans. This staff delegation will take congressional staffers to the Western Balkans where they will meet with senior government officials, civil society, and private sector leaders. Meetings will focus on US policy, regional security, economic development, crime and corruption, judicial reform, and law enforcement issues in the region. The mission of this trip is to build greater awareness and understanding among congressional policymakers of the challenges and opportunities facing the Western Balkans and support informed US policy toward the region.

  Alexander Titolo is currently serving as the Chargés d'affaires at the US Embassy in Belgrade, Serbia. As the highest-ranking US official at US Embassy Belgrade, he will help staffers form a better understanding of US policy perspectives in the region.

- Representatives of Center for Research, Transparency and Accountability (CRTA)

  The Center for Research, Transparency and Accountability (CRTA), is a Serbian non-partisan civil society organization focused on pushing for the development of a robust democratic culture through civic activism. Notably the CRTA has observed elections in Serbia on both the local and national level. Meeting with representative with the CRTA would give staffers insights into efforts to create civic engagement in Serbia as well as allow staffers to better understand the conduct of elections in the country.

6:30 p.m. – 8:30 p.m. Welcome dinner and trip orientation with civil society briefing
Location: Klub Književnika
Address: Francuska 7, Beograd 11000, Serbia

Meeting with representatives from Civil Society in Serbia will offer the staffers a unique, on-the-ground perspective of the realities of living in Serbia's political landscape, particularly given the significant recent protests across the country.

- Ivanka Popovic, Founder, ProGlas movement

  Professor Ivanka Popovic is a professor at, and the former rector of, University of Belgrade as well as the founder of the ProGlas movement. Tuesday, September 8 – Belgrade, Skopje

8:00 a.m. – 11:00 a.m. Private meetings (TBC)

- H.E. Aleksandar Vučić, President of the Republic of Serbia

Aleksandar Vučić has served as the President of the Republic of Serbia since 2017 and is highly significant to the Serbian political landscape. He can provide an invaluable insight into Serbia's domestic and foreign political priorities. Meeting with him will give staffers an important perspective into the Western Balkans' largest economy and one of the region's most influential leaders before he steps down from the Presidency in the coming weeks.

- H.E. Marko Đurić, Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia

Marko Đurić is the Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia. This is his second time serving in this position. As foreign minister, Đurić has an important perspective on the state of Serbia's foreign policy. He will help convey this perspective to staffers and help them understand where the policy priorities of Serbia and United States overlap. This meeting will be particularly interesting given the understanding the Minister has of the Washington landscape given his previous role as Ambassador of Serbia to the United States.

- Ana Draskovic, President, AmCham Board of Governors

Ms. Draskovic is the President of the board of Governors of AmCham Serbia as well as the VP and Regional General Manager for Southern and Eastern Europe at Visa, giving her an unparalleled perspective on private sector operations and market conditions in Serbia. This meeting will provide staffers with a deep understanding of both the broad business environment for US investment in Serbia, as well as allow them to benefit from her direct experience operating in Serbia.

Location: Restaurant Skopski Merak
Address: Debarca St 51, 1000, Skopje 1000, North Macedonia

As a first scene-setting meeting in North Macedonia we will organize an expert briefing for the Staff Delegation so they have a broad overview of relevant historical and political developments in North Macedonia as they head into the rest of the Skopje itinerary.

6:30 p.m. – 7:30 p.m. Cultural activity – Skopje Independence Day
September 8th marks the anniversary of North Macedonia's 1991 referendum on independence from the former Yugoslavia, a peaceful transition that stands in stark contrast to the violent breakups experienced elsewhere in the region. For a young democracy whose statehood and national identity have been repeatedly contested by its neighbors, Independence Day functions as a barometer of the country's resilience and its citizens' continued commitment to the Euro-Atlantic integration process. Direct engagement with Macedonian officials and civil society on the ground offers the Staff Delegation first-hand insight of this significant for this Western Balkan country and NATO Ally.

Wednesday, September 9 – Skopje, Pristina
