Subject: Invite: Colombia delegation
Date: Friday, May 22, 2026 at 10:14:25 AM Eastern Daylight Time
From: Tori Bateman
To: Gonzalez, Caroline (Lee)

Good morning Caroline,

It was great seeing you last evening, thanks for coming out to the event!

I'm reaching out with an invitation to join the Quincy Institute on a staff delegation to Colombia, including stops in Bogota and along the northern coast, from July 6-10, 2026. Over the course of the trip, a bipartisan group of congressional staff will meet with a wide range of organizations and government officials to increase our understanding of the impact of U.S. policy and how to build a positive US-Colombia relationship.

The trip will focus on questions like:

- How might the upcoming Colombian presidential transition impact the country's engagement with the United States?
- How has the Colombian government and civil society reacted to recent U.S interventions in Latin America, including Venezuela and Ecuador?
- What impact has the United States' attacks on boats in the Caribbean had on communities on Colombia's northern coast?
- What are effective ways to address drug trafficking to the United States, and what has been ineffective?
- How does the U.S. presence in Colombia compare to the Chinese presence? How do U.S.-China dynamics impact the development space in Colombia, and how can U.S. policymakers most effectively engage in this context?

The trip will take place July 6-10, 2026. A more detailed itinerary and Travel Sponsor forms will be made available in May for Ethics approval processes. The Quincy Institute (a 501c3 think tank) is the primary, and only, sponsor of the trip. The meetings will be non-partisan and educational.

Please let me know as soon as possible, and by Wednesday of next week at the latest, if you're able to join.

Thanks,
Tori Bateman

- Leonardo Vega, Secretary
- Roberto Diazgranados, Board Member
- Jackson Parra Tesorero, Board Member
- Carlos Cárdenas, Board Member
- Juan Jiménez, Board Member
- Angélica Medina, Board Member
- Audenis Manjarres, Board Member

The Association coordinates training and education for local captains and fishermen. Their members' livelihoods have been impacted by U.S. boat strikes in the Caribbean. This meeting will give staffers a chance to hear directly from local fishermen about the impacts of U.S. policy on their livelihood, and their understanding of dynamics along Colombia's northern coast.

11am-12pm: Lunch & Debrief
The delegation will grab lunch and have a conversation debriefing the meeting with the Santa Marta Association of Nautical Captains and Fishermen. Staffers will summarize what they heard and discuss how what they learned impacts their understanding of U.S-Colombia relationship and policy.

12pm-1pm: Travel by car to UniMagdalena campus; briefing on UniMagdalena Extension Program work.
The delegation will travel between the hotel meeting room and the UniMagdalena campus, and Lee Schlenker will provide background on the Magdalena department and the Extension Program's work to prepare the delegation for engagement with the university staff on their work with the Colombian Caribbean region.

1pm-2:30pm: UniMagdalena Extension Program

- Alvaro Méndez Navarro, Vice-Rector for Community Extension and Social Outreach

The UniMagdalena Extension program works to connect the research and education happening at the university to the Colombian Caribbean region. They work with local workers and the public to solve economic, environmental, and cultural problems.

2:30-3pm: Travel by car to Port of Santa Marta. Lee Schlenker will give a prep briefing on the port itself and Colombian trade relationships to prepare the staffers to engage with the port operations staff.

3pm-6pm: Port Tour & Meeting with Santa Marta Port - Sociedad Portuaria

- Domingo Chinea, General Manager
- Julio Ramirez, Coordinator

6pm-7pm: Dinner
