Dear Stephanie,

On behalf of the Global Women's Innovation Network (GlobalWIN), I am pleased to invite you to join us for a bicameral and bipartisan staff educational trip to New York City on Monday, March 30 through Tuesday, March 31, 2026.

This two-day program will feature substantive discussions with industry leaders and policy experts focused on female leadership, innovation in technology, financial services, artificial intelligence, and workforce development. The trip is designed to provide valuable insights into how these sectors are evolving and to explore policy considerations that support inclusive economic growth and opportunity.

GlobalWIN is a bipartisan 501(c)(3) organization that fosters a dynamic network of female leaders in government, business, and academia. For over 16 years, we have supported professional growth and key policy discussions. Our Honorary Co-Chairs include Senator Shelley Moore Capito (R-WV), Senator Maggie Hassan (D-NH), and Congresswomen Debbie Wasserman Schultz (FL-25), Young Kim (CA-40), Chrissy Houlahan (PA-06) and Jen Kiggans (VA-02).

We plan to depart for New York on Monday morning and return to D.C. on Tuesday evening. Your insights would be invaluable, and we would love for you to join us!

Attached are the necessary documents for submission to the Senate Ethics Committee to obtain approval for your participation. The deadline is Monday, March 2, 2026

For additional information on programming, please contact Angeli Chawla, Executive Director, at angeli@globalwin.org. For guidance on ethics or logistics, please reach out to Andrea Mietus, Senior Advisor, at andrea@mietusevents.com.

Looking forward to seeing you in March, if not sooner!

Best,

Helen Milby

History of Congressional Travel

Describe your organization's history of sponsoring congressional travel.

Over the past 16 years, GlobalWIN has built a strong reputation for organizing impactful domestic and international trips that elevate women leaders and strengthen cross-sector collaboration. Since its founding, GlobalWIN has consistently created opportunities for women leaders from across the political spectrum to come together, travel, and engage in meaningful dialogue. With a commitment to bipartisanship, the organization has successfully brought together women from public and private sectors to work across the aisle on key policy and leadership issues.

Educational Activities

Describe the educational activities performed by your organization other than sponsoring congressional travel.

GlobalWIN hosts 1–3 educational programs each month, with attendance typically ranging from 20 to 100 participants. These programs convene professionals from government, Capitol Hill, corporate leadership, nonprofits, and industry associations, creating an environment that encourages meaningful dialogue and relationship-building. A key component of GlobalWIN's mission is investing in the professional growth of congressional staff. Throughout the year, the organization provides career development programming specifically designed for Hill staff, equipping them with leadership and management skills, cross-sector exposure, strategic policy insights, and expanded professional networks.

Purpose and Details

Provide a brief description of the trip.

GlobalWIN will bring 10-15 Senate staff members from Republican and Democratic offices from the U.S. Senate to New York on March 30- and 31st for programming on an variety of issues such as financial regulation, innovation, and workforce development. GlobalWIN provides these Congressional staffers with the unique opportunity to participate in meetings directly related to their subject matter expertise, while also gleaning information from non-direct and equally important sources. Our time in New York will combine all tiers of GlobalWIN programming allowing the Senate staff an opportunity to meet other colleagues from different offices and learn more about different important subject matters that affect policies issues.

Explain how the purpose of the trip relates to your organization's mission.

GlobalWIN's mission centers on bringing women together across party lines to engage constructively on policy and leadership issues. A bipartisan staff trip—bringing together participants from both Republican and Democratic offices—creates a neutral, relationship-building environment outside the pressures of Washington. By traveling and learning together, staff develop trust, mutual understanding, and professional relationships that can translate into more productive collaboration back on Capitol Hill. These experiences strengthen professional networks, provide mentorship opportunities, and expand access to leadership pathways.

Is your organization the only sponsor for this trip?

(●) Yes ( ) No

If No, describe your organization's role in planning the trip.

If there are multiple sponsors, each sponsor must submit Organization Information (Page 1 of the Private Sponsor Travel Certification Form) and a Signature Page Form.
